GROVETON – John C. Boudle, 92, of Groveton, and formerly of Milan, passed away peacefully at the home of his nephew on Wednesday evening, July 29, 2015.

He was born in Bruswick, Vt., on May 23, 1923, a son to the late Bernard and Nellie (Parker) Boudle, and he grew up there amongst his brothers and sisters.

John is predeceased by an infant son, John; a son, Ronald; four brothers, William, Jimmy, Vernard and George “Tuffy” Boudle; and two sisters, Christina

Day and Edith Stevenson.

“ As his long time neighbor, John and I enjoyed lots of time together going to Dr. appointments and getting his groceries in his later years. He always had great stories to tell, was fiercely independent, strong as an ox, and he could fix anything! He loved "puttying around", I made him promise after age 90 he wouldn't get up on a ladder again! Rest in Peace my friend.

“ I only met John a short time ago but I am so glad that I had the privilege of meeting him. Last weekend, I spent time with him and had the opportunity to hear him play his harmonica, do a jig and got a smile. The next day John and I had a "3 Musketeers date" and we enjoyed the sweets! I am so grateful that I met such a guy and his friend Jimbo!
