

John H. Reynolds, Sr.

March 11, 1943 - February 7, 2004

Mr. John H. Reynolds, Sr., 60, of Columbia, NH, passed away suddenly at his home on Saturday, February 7, 2004, in Columbia.

Mr. Reynolds was born March 11, 1943, in Columbia, the son of the late Vern and Margaret (Stanton) Reynolds.

He worked for Brown Company in the North Stratford mill for several years before moving to Benton, Maine, where he worked for Gerald Spencer Carpentry. In the early 1980's, he and his family moved to Columbia, working for a short period of time for Mike Ouellet and later for Lambert's Grocery Store in the maintenance department. His final place of employment was with The BALSAMS Grand Resort Hotel.

Mr. Reynolds enjoyed hunting, fishing, gardening and grooming for the Stratford Nighthawks Snowmobile Club. You could often find him visiting with friends and family on the front lawn of his home telling stories and jokes. He was also an avid supporter of NASCAR and loved working with the Aaron Bennett racing team.

Mr. Reynolds is survived by his loving wife of 40 years, Marlene (Fournier) Reynolds of Columbia, NH; six children: Laurie Reynolds of Texas, Peter Reynolds and wife, Stacy, of North Stratford, NH, John Reynolds, Jr. and girlfriend, Jody Reid, of Clinton, ME, James Reynolds and wife, Judy, of Colebrook, NH, Theresa Choquette and husband, Donald, of Errol, NH, and Jeffrey Reynolds and wife, Dee, of West Stewartstown, NH; three brothers: Vern Reynolds and wife, Paula, of Columbia, NH, Randy Reynolds of Fairfield Center, ME, and Scott Reynolds and wife, Brenda, of Clinton, ME; a sister, Eva Wheeler and husband, Bob, of Beecher Falls, VT; twelve (12) grandchildren; one (1) great-granddaughter; and numerous nieces, nephews and cousins.

Mr. Reynolds is preceded in death by his parents, a brother, Bill Reynolds, and a sister, Betty Fortier.
