

John "Jack" G. Britton, Jr.

August 20, 1947 - February 24, 2006

COLEBROOK, NEW HAMPSHIRE – Mr. John “Jack” G. Britton, Jr, 58, of North Stratford, NH, passed away suddenly on Friday, February 24, 2006, at the Upper Connecticut Valley Hospital. Mr. Britton was born August 20, 1947, in Jaffrey, New Hampshire, son of John G. Britton, Sr., and Vivian (Potter) Britton. Mr. Britton was a well-known local storekeeper, having been most recently the proprietor of the North Stratford Market, and the former owner/operator of the West Charleston Country Store in West Charleston, Vermont, and New England Video of Derby, Vermont. He was always up early in the morning to get behind the counter of his stores to get the coffee and doughnuts ready. Mr. Britton will be remembered for his tireless work ethic, his good sense of humor and his quick temper. He will also be remembered as a loving son, husband, father, grandfather, and brother. Mr. Britton is survived by his loving wife, Jane Britton, of North Stratford, NH; two daughters, Jodi Woodard and her husband, Milton, of Coventry, VT, and Jessica Green and her husband, Michael, of West Charleston, VT; his parents, Vivian Potter of Mont Vernon, NH, and John G. Britton, Sr., of Manchester, NH; a brother, Robert Britton and his wife, Jo, of Snohomish, WA; two sisters, Rosalie Philbrick and her husband, Frank “Skip”, of Mont Vernon, NH, and Vivian Britton and her husband, Thuron Dotson of Canton, GA; four grandchildren, Nicholas Woodard, Chelsea Woodard, Michaela Green and Jordan Green; and numerous nieces, nephews and cousins. Private calling hours will be held at the Jenkins & Newman Funeral Home in Colebrook, NH, at the convenience of the family. A memorial reception will be held on Friday, March 3, 2006, from 1-4 p.m. at the Fuller Town Hall in North Stratford, NH. Expressions of sympathy in Mr. Britton's memory may be made to the Muscular Dystrophy Association of NH, 360 Route 101, #253, Bedford, NH 03110.
