

Joseph "Lew" Melanson

October 17, 1934 - March 7, 2015

COLUMBIA – Joseph Lewis “Lew” Melanson, 80, of Columbia, passed away at the Upper Connecticut Valley Hospital in Colebrook on Saturday evening, March 7, 2015, the 21st wedding anniversary with his beloved wife, Gerda, who was at his side.

He was born on Oct. 17, 1934, in New Bedford, Mass., one of 13 children to the late Peter and Emiline (Marcotte) Melanson. He attended schools in Massachusetts and later served with honor in the U.S. Navy.

Following his military service, Lew worked for the State of Massachusetts highway department for 25 years as a bridge carpenter. Not one to ever sit still, he had most recently worked at the rest area in Colebrook as a greeter.

On March 7, 1994, Lew married the love of his life, Gerda, whom he lovingly referred to as his “German bride,” at the top of the Balsams/Wilderness ski slopes where they had met and fallen in love. They moved to NH permanently in 1997 and made their home in Bungy.

Lew enjoyed being outside, working in his woods and was always up for any project that involved hammers, power tools, or a chainsaw. He loved to mow his lawn which he made sure looked like a carpet of green. Always wanting to be busy, he volunteered for many organizations, including Kiwanis and the Colebrook Ski-Bees. He loved meeting new people and learning new things. Lew loved reading history books, surfing the web on his computer, and telling and hearing stories. He was quick to laugh and was always ready to share his wisdom with anyone who was looking for it. He was usually right, much to the consternation of some. He would often say, "You do what you want, but..." And you were usually sorry if you didn't listen to that "but..."

He was tenacious, hard-working, and although he battled illness the last few years of his life, he never once complained. He died as he lived, setting an example that love, strong character, and an even stronger faith can see you through anything. Lew always said, "Love is the most important thing." He was a communicant of St. Brendan's Church and a faithful, loyal servant of the Lord. He made sure to say grace each and every night before dinner and taught his friends to do the same.

Lew is survived by his loving wife of 21 years, Gerda (Möest) Melanson of Columbia; a son, Scott Melanson and wife Mary of Wareham, Mass.; two step-sons, Siggi Ahrens and wife Karen of Florida, and Ingo Ahrens and wife Karen of Colebrook; four brothers; six sisters; three grandchildren; his next door neighbors and dear friends who he considered family, Scott and Coralie Stepanian; as well as numerous nieces and nephews.

He is predeceased by two daughters, Kelly, as a teenager, and Nicole; and two brothers.

At Lew's specific request, there are no public services. A celebration of his life will take place at a later date.

Expressions of sympathy in memory of Lew may be made to the North Country Community Recreation Center, 33 Rec Center Rd., Colebrook, NH 03576

Condolences may be offered to the family on-line by going to www.jenkinsnewman.com.

Funeral arrangements in NH are under the direction of Jenkins & Newman Funeral Home in Colebrook.

“ *Gerda,
Susan Preston told Billy and I you had lost your husband.
Don't know if you remmeber Billy and I with the whole crew every year for over 20 years at the Balsams, with Dean and Lorraine Ellis, Larry and Eujanie Wheeler and of course Roger and Susan Preston and others different years.
Billy and I wanted to send our condolences, I'm sure Lew was a Wonderful man.
We always looked forward to seeing you every year and hope to see the Balsams again if it reopens.

“ I am so very sorry for your loss. I offer the family and friends of Mr. Melanson my sincere condolences. Would this be the father of my late friend, Kelly Melanson, (from Acushnet, MA) who passed on her birthday on Feb. 10, 1974? I never stopped visiting her gravesite at Sacred Heart cemetery in New Bedford, if so. Kelly had a sister Nicole, who I just learned had also passed. My condondolences to all. This is why I'm inquiring because of the similarities. She lived on Nestles Lane in Acushnet.

Again, I am so sorry for the loss of Mr. Melanson....

“ Gerda,
I am so truly sorry to hear of Lew's passing. It seems just like yesterday that we all went to the top of the mountain for your wedding. Lew always had a twinkle in his eye and a smile on his face. You were truly loved and he made everyone happier just being around him. I will keep you and him in my thoughts and prayers. Hang in there my dear friend.

“ Dear Gerda- we have been privileged to know you and Lew for these many years. Our fondest memories are of snowmobiling together, watching you two walking up our driveway for visits, dinners at your house with such good conversation, Lew's many stories and his freely given wisdom. There was always joy around both of you and we know how deeply you loved one another. We know he is at peace and hope that you find peace, too, in knowing that you are loved by your friends and the many people who knew Lew and are here for you now.

“ Dear Gerda,
There just are no words to express our feelings of sorrow for the loss of your very beloved "Lew". No one could ever have loved and taken better care of him over these last months than you. You were both such an inspiration to everyone who had the joy of knowing you and watching first hand the love and joy in both your faces, no matter what circumstance you found yourselves facing. The dinners and Christmas parties we were fortunate enough to share with you both will forever be in our minds and hearts.
We wish there was some way to ease your pain at this dark time in your life but know that we cannot fix your broken heart. Just know that "Lew" and you are loved by all whose life you entered and that we are here always for whatever you may need. We love you and know that we are only two of many. “ Oh Gerda, I am crushed. The way Lew carried himself, loved life and yourself openly and freely, well...when we were around him, it was like being around a flowering flower...or like being around warmth that kept on coming.... I really liked bumping into him, he helped me remember what's important in life. I can't understand the magnitude of your loss, but please know how much I care about it and you... Attending your wedding was one of the most fun and special experiences I ever got to be a part of, but it never beat just seeing you two together in action. Very special, and very inspiring, forever. Take care, much love, my prayers are with you, I look forward to giving you a big hug. - Jamey Tillotson
