

Joseph Paul 'Red' Lepine

May 30, 1934 - June 25, 2016

BLOOMFIELD – Joseph Paul ‘Red’ Lepine, 82, of Bloomfield, Vt., passed away at his home on Saturday afternoon, June 25, 2016, after a short period of ill health.

He was born on May 30, 1934, in St. Isidore, Québec, a son to the late Alphonse and Mary Louise (Perron) Lepine. Red served with honor in the U.S. Army as a French translator in Europe in the 1950s.

Following his military service, he returned to northern Vermont and NH and was married to Pauline Poulin, and together they raised their family in Bloomfield. Red worked hard to support his family at many different jobs for many years. He worked as a heavy equipment operator at the Stratford Plywood Mill and later at the Groveton Paper Board, all the while also driving school bus in the towns of Groveton, Stratford and Colebrook. He continued as a school bus driver until only recently in Colebrook. Red also served his church and community, and took care of all the cemeteries in his area, including as volunteer sexton at Fairview Cemetery for more than 10 years, at the Sacred Heart and Baldwin Cemeteries in North Stratford, and the St. Stanislaus Cemetery in Bloomfield, never accepting compensation for his work. He was a well-known local auctioneer, and he worked as a beloved funeral assistant for many years at Jenkins & Newman Funeral Home in Colebrook, again putting his translating skills to work.

Red was a faithful communicant of Sacred Heart Church in North Stratford, and he loved to spend time with his family, of which he was extremely proud. He enjoyed being in the outdoors, and to spend time at hunting camp with his brothers. He enjoyed a bit of gambling once in awhile, too, and enjoyed an occasional scratch ticket and trips to Oxford Casino in Maine. His family will also remember Red as a wonderful cook and baker, who will be missed dearly by everyone.

Red is survived by his loving wife of 58 years, Pauline (Poulin) Lepine; five children, Susan Fuller and husband David of Bloomfield, Kathy Lepine of North Stratford, Theresa Lepine of Lancaster, Patricia Purrington of Colebrook, and Gerry Lepine and wife Mary of Lost Nation; his siblings, Aura Hodge of Littleton, NH, Jeannine Labrecque of Richmond, Que., Maurice Lepine and wife Shirley of Port St. Lucie, Fla., and Daniel Lepine and wife Sue of Canaan; 11 grandchildren; 14 great-grandchildren; as well as numerous nieces and nephews; and his faithful canine companion, Benji.

He is predeceased by an infant daughter, Mary, and a sister, Rachel Lepine.

Calling hours will be on Thursday, June 30, 2016, from 5 to 8 p.m. at the Jenkins & Newman Funeral Home in Colebrook. A Mass of Christian Burial will be held the next day, Friday, July 1, at 2 p.m. at the Sacred Heart Catholic Church in North Stratford, with The Rev. Daniel Deveau as celebrant. Interment will be at a later date, with military honors, in the Fairview Cemetery in North Stratford.

Expressions of sympathy in memory of Red may be made to the Two Rivers Ride for Cancer, c/o R. Mulliken, at 53 Spring St., Colebrook, NH 03576.

Condolences may be offered to the family on-line by going to www.jenkinsnew man.com.

Funeral arrangements in NH are under the direction of Jenkins & Newman

“I married Uncle Paul's nephew, Gary Lepine, September 2, 1978...we were high school sweethearts! Sadly my husband passed away on July 24, 1985.
The Lepine family is one of the most loving, caring, supportive and faith filled families I have ever known. Seeing you all this evening was both heart wrenching and joyful. I became part of this family over 30 years ago and I remain a part of this amazing family and always will. Our sons, Gregory and Thomas, are the loving examples from this family. Uncle Paul was one of the most unselfish and giving man I have ever met. He will certainly be missed by all, but what a wonderful addition to Heaven he will make. We love you all and will always cherish your strong family bonds and unending love and faith. May God Bless you. Love from Denise, Greg, and Thomas.

“ From Gerry to my best friend. I want to share a brief story with everyone. Last Friday I picked my dad up at the VA hospital after what he convinced me was a brief illness and was okay to come home. His nurse Jessica helped him into the car and gave him a hug. I looked at the big smile on my dads face shooked my head and we were off for our 2 hour ride home. He told me "Gerry we need to talk". He explained to me that he knew he was going to die. Little did I know that that would only mean 24 hours. He proceeded to tell me about a list of things that I needed to do which included which suit he would wear, who to call, and what to do. He made me promise no 911, no CPR, etc. He said that when he passed to be sure that my sisters would not be present when they took him away. As I held my dad through the night I then realized how real this was. He apologized for putting this all on me but said he knew I could handle it. This was a lot to handle. The next day my dad died peacefully with me by his side. I want to thank you dad for that last day. I want to thank my sisters for not holding me responsible for the decisions I made. It is something I will carry with me for a long time. I love you dad.

“ Red was a wonderful man and will be greatly missed. He drove bus for all for of my boys. One day he couldn't get the bus out and drove his truck out to our place to pick up the youngest two so they wouldn't miss school! Love you Red! Much love and prayers to the family!

“ Uncle Red was a big part of my life growing up. I rember spending Saturday nights with them and getting up on Sunday mornings to go to church with all of them. And as with most families we grow up and move on as I did. Then years later I started going back to church and getting involved and was able to spend time once again with him and Aunt Pauline because they were very active in the church community. They both finally talked me into working at Bingo on Wednesday nights so was fortunate to spend time once again. When I opened DeBanvilles he was my neighbor and every morning he would come and get his paper and yes he was well known for "his" stories! He will be missed and my thoughts and prayers go out to his family and friends
