

Josephine M. Phillips

May 14, 1915 - August 15, 2006

Mrs. Josephine M. (Young) Phillips, 91, of Spring Street, Colebrook, New Hampshire, passed away Tuesday evening, August 15, 2006, at the Upper Connecticut Valley Hospital. Mrs. Phillips was born May 14, 1915, in Stewartstown, NH, daughter of the late Orin and Chloe (Brooks) Young. Mrs. Phillips worked as a short order cook for Howard's Restaurant. She was also employed at The BALSAMS Grand Resort Hotel where she cared for young children at the Wilderness Ski Area and worked in the laundry department. She later worked in several area homes caring for children and the elderly. She loved spending time with her family, traveling to and from Florida where she would often stay for the winter. Her many hobbies included crocheting, gardening, tending to her flowers, quilting and reading. Mrs. Phillips is survived by her son, Ceiland Phillips of Barnstead, NH; three daughters, Edith Pariseau and husband, Bob, of Columbia, NH, Flora Kernan of Port St. Orange, FL, and Kathleen Branch of Lake Wales, FL; 23 grandchildren; 15 great-grandchildren; six great-great grandchildren; and numerous nieces, nephews and cousins. Mrs. Phillips is preceded in death by her parents; her loving husband, Jesse Phillips in 1985; three sons; one daughter; two brothers; one sister; one grandson; and one great-grandson. Calling hours will be held on Friday, August 18, 2006, from 6-9 p.m. at the Jenkins & Newman Funeral Home in Colebrook. A graveside service will be conducted on Saturday, August 19th, at 11:00 a.m. at the Colebrook Village Cemetery with The Reverend Larry Clough officiating.
