

Joseph S. Kelley, Jr.

January 10, 1970 - August 8, 2010

STEWARTSTOWN, NH – Mr. Joseph S. Kelley, Jr., 40, of Stewartstown, NH, passed away unexpectedly on Sunday, August 8, 2010, at his home.

Born on January 10, 1970, in Malden, Mass., Joe was the son of Joseph Kelley, Sr. and Marie (Valley) Kelley. Joe was a graduate of Malden High School, and he attended college at Salem State in Massachusetts. He was a sponge for knowledge and loved being in school.

Joe was a person who loved to help people and that drove him into the field of healthcare. For many years, he served as an EMT in Salem, Mass., and he was in the process of becoming licensed as an EMT in New Hampshire. For a time he also worked as a dialysis technician for the Fresenius company in Mass.

He also loved nature and to be outdoors, and he enjoyed hunting and just walking in the woods whenever he could. He also adored his two nieces who will miss him dearly. Joe also was a man of deep faith, and loved his church.

Joe is survived by his parents, Joseph, Sr. and Marie Kelly of Stewartstown, NH; his sister, Jennifer Doucet and husband David of Barton, Vt.; his godfather and uncle, William Kelley of Woburn, Mass.; his godmother, Patricia Piazza of Florida; his two special nieces, Rebecca and Annabelle Doucet; as well as numerous aunts and uncles and cousins, all of whom he loved.

There are no calling hours. A memorial Mass will be held on Friday, August 13, 2010, at 11 a.m. at St. Brendan's Catholic Church in Colebrook with The Rev. Craig Cheney as celebrant.

Expressions of sympathy in Joe's memory may be made to St. Jude Children's Research Hospital, 501 St. Jude Place, Memphis, TN 38105.

Condolences may be offered to the family on-line by going to www.jenkinsnewman.com.

“ I'm in disbelief that Joe has passed away and sad he is no longer with us. I still remember the first day I met Joe about 5 years ago at a show. I didn't know Joe that well but well enough to know that he was a great guy and loved his music. My heart goes out to his family and God bless Joe and his family! See you soon Joe!##imported-begin##Joseph E. Fernandes##imported-end##

“ I first met Joe when I started covering some shows of the local punk bands. I liked the music and people a lot but since I was twice as old as most of them I figured I wouldn't be accepted. But one night at the Abbey Joe said to me, “You know, you fit in well pretty well with us.” When I mentioned my doubt because of my age (I was fifty)he said, “That shouldn't matter, I'm thirty five, I'm the oldest here, you shouldn't let it bother you.” And at that moment I decided he was right.

When my wife and I was moving to California a few years ago the first thing Joe said when he was told about it was, “We got to throw you show, a going away party,” And he did. Along with Mike Mahoney he got my favorite bands at my favorite club (The Abbey) on a Saturday Night that even some of my non-music friends attended. It was a great night and it was the most fun in thirty years of going to Boston clubs.

I guess you could say his music was aggressive, anti-social, vulgar and maybe that did reflect the demons inside him but the guy I knew was gentle, friendly, kind and generous. Of all the really nice people I've met in the punk community I would say, in my opinion, Joe was the best.

I thought Joe was a good musician but he was an even greater guy and I'll miss him.##imported-begin##Jim Vacca (Slimedog)##imported-end##

“ Marie and Joe,
Know that your son, Joe, as a brother, a cousin and friend, those whose lives he touched will be all the richer in this life for having experienced and sharing in his life as he chose to live it. To thine own self be true . . . as night follows the day and the day follows night . . . at peace at last.##imported-begin##Gayle A. Lucas Plouffe##imported-end##

“ Joe was a great friend to me and my wife Lisa. He came to our wedding last September after his accident and we couldn't believe he was there. We told him to stay home and recover, but he wasn't having it. He was always there for us, no matter what. We will never forget him. It was great meeting you on Friday. I so so wish it was for a different reason. I can't begin to express our deepest sympathy for your loss, for all of our loss. He was a legend here in Salem and his memory will live on forever.##imported-begin##Michael Bernardo##imported-end##

“ Auntie Marie, Uncle Joe, Jenny & family my thoughts and prayers are with you during this time I love you all and I thought this poem was fitting.

My Cousin

*People never knew just how much he meant to me and you
They knew him by name, but it's still not the same*

*His eyes so bright, his smile so wide
We always let him know we were right there by his side*

*Now he's gone from me and you
Now we have no reason to be blue*

*We loved him, he loved us
And we have to try not to fuss*

*He said goodbye and gave you a kiss
Now all we can do is reminis*

*Why does God take the best to love
Up to that great big world up above?*

*His memory will never leave
His kind and gentle smile will always be seen*

*Never forget him, never let him leave your mind
Tell him you love him, just one more time.##imported-begin##Tricia

“ Joe, Marie, and Jenny, I am so deeply sorry for your loss. Although we had lost touch somewhere along the way after high school, I still think of Joe as one of the best friends I have had in my life. I have great memories of the cool things we did together in high school. Driving to Montreal, and taking the bus to Times Square on new years eve come to mind. Hope to see you again one day Joe. May you rest in peace my old friend.##imported-begin##mark wilkinson##imported-end##

“ Joe was a lot of fun! Joe was full of strong opinions. He was a great presence in the North Shore punk music scene. We loved Rat Velvet, Black Barbie and Zippo Raid was Joe at his best. It was exciting to be involved with Joe and his music during those years in the 90's. Joe's charismatic charm and intense passion brought so many to cherish and revere his style, the style in his music and in his life. He is already a well loved legend. We are so sad that he has passed over and is no longer with us. Our deepest sympathy to Joe Sr. and Marie and all who loved Joe.

“ Mr. & Mrs. Kelley and Family

I'm one of the nurse at the doctors office where I met Joe about a month or so ago. I must tell you in the short time that I knew him; he had to be one of the nicest, most respectful and outgoing people I've met. We all had a good laugh that day when I said to him "so you must be the guy that I see walking your dog all the time" and his reply has us in stitches...he said "yes I probably am...are you the lady that almost runs over me every time?" Even though I only knew Joe for a short time he certainly wont be forgton. Everytime I drive over that road I think about what he said and laugh...sometimes its the little things that you think will be forgotton that never will be. “ Joe will be sorely missed. Even after being told by friends and reading the obituary it still seems unreal. I knew Joe through music and he really affected many people in a positive way. Joe and I played in a couple bands together so I got to hear people from other bands and the audience tell me that Joe was a good guy, and how much they enjoyed his songs. One guy told me directly that he was thrilled to have the chance to play in the same band as him. It's weird to think he's gone. Very sad. “ Joe always made you laugh. He was always doin something funny, intentionally or not. He was a huge supporter of the underground, underdog musician, and went to a million of his friend's band's shows. If there were only 10 people at a local show, chances are Joe was there up front singing along. A class act that will be sorely missed, I wish I got to see more of him these last couple years. I hope there's a race track wherever he is now....##imported-begin##Jon Marcantonio##imported-end##

“ Dear Mr. & Mrs. Kelley,
We work with Ellen and Eva and wanted to express that our thoughts and prayers are with you. Ellen has spoken many times about your son Joe and the closeness of their relationship, she will miss him dearly. I recall a story she conveyed about staying up all night having to clean up a mess they made with chalk; she remembers they were, at one time, inseparable...they could have been brother and sister, they look so much alike...and Ellen says that he didn't feel like a nephew, Joe always felt like a brother to her. It's hard to understand why people are taken from us, we hope you and your family are able to find hope in tomorrow, have faith in the everlasting, and take comfort in the love and support of each other. Time and prayer are the keys to healing pain, we offer you both during this time of sorrow. Wishing you comfort from your memories during this time of sadness. “ I knew Joe for only a short time but liked him the moment I met him. He was sweet and kind and always had a nice thing to say. I work at the hospital and I would only see him if he came to the office to get a patient's chart. We swapped tattoo stories and I got to see some of his. I will always remember Joe because he stood out from everyone else. He told me he loved it up here and being from Rhode Island I could understand why the North Country was a special place for Joe. I will miss him and his smile.

“ We played music together for many years but what he really taught me was to do it on your own terms. He had a way of making everyone feel like he was their best friend.
Words can't express. I'm a better person for having known Joe Kelley.
God bless.##imported-begin##Greg##imported-end##

“ I cannot believe this has happened. I played my first show in Boston with Joe at The Rat. I was made welcome at his home in Malden by him and his family when we used to practice in his basement. I recorded songs with him in NH with Jonee Earthquake at his studio. I regret losing touch with him; one always thinks there is all the time in the world. Condolences to all his family.##imported-begin##Alex Leacock##imported-end##

“ Marie, Joe, and Jenny, and family. I cannot tell you the emotions I am feeling right now. Joey was my Godson, nephew and soulmate. He loved life and I was his favorite aunt. Our conversations were always full of laughter, jokes and the love of his parents. I would get a text or a picture from Joey that would always be a good joke. To my sister, I am heartbroken for you and Joe and the last few months were the happiest of his life.##imported-begin##Patty Valley Piazza##imported-end##
