

Joyce Marie Lakin

February 26, 1926 - September 15, 2004

Mrs. Joyce Marie (Hodson) Lakin, 78, of West Stewartstown, NH, passed away Wednesday afternoon, September 15, 2004, at the Upper Connecticut Valley Hospital.

Mrs. Lakin was born February 26, 1926, in Turon, KS, daughter of the late Harry and Bertha (Kelley) Hodson.

Mrs. Lakin enjoyed her working career. She worked as a waitress at Howard's Restaurant and was employed at the North Stratford plywood mill and also made popcorn at the movie theatre in Colebrook before its closing. She also worked as a cashier at both LaPerle's IGA and Solomon's Store while assisting various families as a nanny. She enjoyed her crossword puzzles, reading, making crafts, traveling and collecting items such as stamps, coins and miniature elephants. She will be remembered as a loving mother, grandmother, great-grandmother and friend.

Mrs. Lakin is survived by eight children: Diana Corliss of Colebrook, NH, Donald "Jack" Haynes of Seattle, WA, David "Jim" Haynes and his wife, Judi, of Manchester, NH, Sandra Hall and husband, Richard, of Colebrook, NH, Rex Haynes and his companion, Claire Vachon, of Merrimack, NH, Valerie Hartlen and husband, Michael, of Merrimack, NH, Wendell "Walt" Lakin and wife, Valerie, of Milford, NH, and Randy Lakin of Canaan, VT; five brothers and sisters: Milburn Hodson and wife, Carolyn, of Kingman, KS, Doris Maze and husband, Bob, of Thurmont, MD, Wayne Hodson and wife, Yvonne, of Golden, CO, Dean Hudson and wife, Jacque, of Madison Lodge, KS, and Shirley Jeannette Winter and husband, Leon, of Kingman, KS; twenty-two (22) grandchildren; seventeen (17) great-grandchildren; and numerous nieces, nephews and cousins.

Mrs. Lakin is preceded in death by her first husband, Donald E. Haynes; her second husband, Wendell Ward Lakin; two children: Donna Joy Riendeau and Curtis Russell Haynes; and a brother, Lee Hodson.