“ I am so sorry to hear about Judy. I will remember her smile and the little laugh that accompanied it even when it was a tough day at work. I worked in another area but she was where she absolutely belonged with her wonderful personality. She always made you feel as important as the next person. She was super kind to me when my Mother was very sick in the E.R. My deepest sympathy to you, John , as well as Stephen, Christopher, Doug , Donald and other family members. The photo is all Judy. “ Auntie Judy holds a place in my heart, a kindred spirit of sorts. She raised her boys with such love, it was always a special time to visit her and her family in Merrimack, Ma. She was a kind and empathetic lady who loved people and all creatures great and small. Especially dogs. We shared cards and letters through the years and she never missed an important milestone in my life.

Later she and her husband John moved to the outdoor paradise of Pittsburgh. I could see why she loved it so much and my husband and I visited on a number of occasions and shared a chat around her spotless livingroom. She was beautiful inside and out and I wish I had been able to spend more time with her. You are missed Auntie Judy and so sorry to John and my cousins and friends who will miss her always ,welcome heart.

“ To Judy's family: I am so sorry for your loss. She and John built a house right down the road from my childhood home. I remember her always walking, even brutally cold days with temps. even -10 below or more. She would always say hello to us when my brother and I were outside. She was a wonderful, kind lady. Thinking of the family members and even the community members that knew her well.

“ Judy was one of my favorite people. She volunteered in our school library for many years. I could always count on her. If she couldn't make it on her regular day, she always made arrangements to come to the school on another day that week. She was always cheerful, and I loved visiting with her. She was a big champion for Pittsburg School too. She will be greatly missed. My prayers to John and family; may you find comfort in happy memories. With sympathy,
