

Katherine E. Ackert

September 28, 1935 - November 1, 2003

Mrs. Katherine E. (Angevine)Ackert, 68, of Colebrook, NH, passed away suddenly on Saturday, November 1, 2003, at the Concord Hospital, Concord, NH, following complications from back surgery.

Mrs. Ackert was born September 28, 1935, in Upton, ME, the daughter of the late John and Gladys (Lombard) Angevine.

Mrs. Ackert was a graduate of the Gould Academy in 1953. She was a civil servant for the United States Department of Defense, working at the Pentagon until her retirement. She enjoyed quilting, gardening, crafts and helping with church functions. She also enjoyed traveling and attending craft shows.

Mrs. Ackert is survived by her five brothers and sisters, Avery Angevine of Bethel, ME, Ernest Angevine, and wife Alberta, of Bethel, ME, Carrie Holt, and husband Carlton, of Berlin, NH, Mary Agnes Deblois, and husband Oriol, of Shelburne, NH, and John Angevine, and wife Constance, of Stewartstown, NH; and numerous nieces, nephews and cousins.

She is preceded in death by three brothers, Everett Angevine, George Angevine and Chester Arthur Angevine; and three sisters, Luella Angevine, Helen Robichaud and Suzanne Morris.

Friends and family are invited to attend a reception after the interment service to be held at the Ladies Aid Auxiliary building across the street from the cemetery in Upton, ME.