“ I know that this is so much later than it should be, I'm so so very sorry for the loss of your daughter, Kim. (Diane) Ma Witham, brother Pete, Dad Peter, and all the rest of the Witham family, many of whom I met and shared a small window of time in your lives while I was with Kim, my heart is aching and the tears are flowing. Your Kim brought me out of a darkness so black, and showed me that living life should be full of family and Love, and being who you ARE. To Diane, ma I'm so sorry for your loss...I now that your heart will forever be missing a huge part in your everyday life. I do not know the heartache you feel, the depth you grieve, or the pain of Kim leaving you on this earth, but I do know how much you loved your daughter, and all that she brought through her doors and life. I think of you all so often, the great times we had, in the 2 years I was in Beecher Falls, the love your family showed to friends, and I always wanted to come back and see you all again, it was just never in the stars.....now when I look at the stars in the night sky, I will not only see my mother in one, but also Kim, as she lives on in the heavens as she did on this earth....full of brightness, loving the nighttime and shining through the darkness as she did through all her pain. Again I am so sorry for your loss and so saddened to find the news of her passing at this particular moment in time. May The Lord's strength envelope you all to support you in your time of grieve.

“ Thank you bringing your smile to my eyes, your beautiful spirit into my life, and your love into my heart.
As you knew, I could never forget you.

*I just found out today that Kim passed on.
I remember listening to this song with her when it first came out.
I never imagined how true the lyrics would ring (aside from the Marianne part).*

*"I looked out this morning and the sun was gone
Turned on some music to start my day
I lost myself in a familiar song
I closed my eyes and I slipped away*

*It's more than a feeling, when I hear that old song they used to play
(more than a feeling)
I begin dreaming (more than a feeling)
'Til I see Marianne walk away
I see my Marianne walkin' away*

*So many people have come and gone
Their faces fade as the years go by Yet I still recall as I wander on
As clear as the sun in the summer sky*

*It's more than a feeling, when I hear that old song they used to play
(more than a feeling)
I begin dreaming (more than a feeling)
'Til I see Marianne walk away
I see my Marianne walkin' away*

*When I'm tired and thinking cold
I hide in my music, forget the day
And dream of a girl I used to know
I closed my eyes and she slipped away*

She slipped away."

“ *I remember Kim and I have so much fun and getting into so much mischief as a teenager.
She was always so joyful and loved to laugh. I mostly remember our rides to school with Paula Tremblay (oh, so long ago) but so many laughs. I will miss you dearly my friend. I wish we could had gotten back together for a good laugh of our older days.*
