“ Aunt Mae I remember as a child you always pinching my cheeks. As an adult I remember your infectious sense of humor. My regret is in having moved so far away from family. Love you.

“ Aunt Mae you were always someone I looked up to and wanted to be just like you. Your personality and sense of humor was so amazing. I remember going to the Casino with you in Ny and you making the guy at the counter face turn pink. I loved growing up and you , Lynn,Aunt Shirley and Debbie coming out and staying with us in the summers. You taught me to take no crap from a man and to move on and don't look back. You will missed deeply but I know you are raising hell up there. Till we meet again. I love you.

“ Mae, you were lovingly cared for. I enjoyed our visits. You made me laugh a lot. My sweetest memory is of you and Phil walking up the hill to the garden each with a pail to gather the many garden treasures. I will miss you. Teresa
