

Lisa J. Morris

February 12, 1966 - February 25, 2013

Lisa Jean Morris, 47, passed away suddenly on Monday, Feb. 25, 2013, in New York City.

She was born in Lancaster, NH, on Feb. 12, 1966, to Patricia Morris of Colebrook, NH, and the late Thomas Morris Jr. of Groveton. She was predeceased by her grandparents, Minnie and Edward Goodrum Sr., and Eva and Thomas Morris Sr. Lisa was previously married to Alphonso Quinones and leaves behind one son, Philip Quinones. She also leaves three sisters: Sharon Ingerson and children John Robertson and Sara Johnson; Mitzi Morris Clark and children Zachary Boera, Brittany Boera Rome and Caitlin Boera; Eva Marie Morris Mickiewicz and her husband Walter and children Mandy Morris, Austin McGee, and Meagan, Timothy, and Kyle Mickiewicz. In addition she leaves many aunts, uncles, cousins and her best friend, Narciana Boyd.

Lisa worked as a CNA at Country Village in Lancaster and Columbia Presbyterian Hospital in New York. She attended Groveton High School and White Mtn. Regional High School, Class of '85. She loved animals and was pursuing a degree in Veterinary Technology at LaGuardia Community College.

Her name, which is Hebrew for “devoted to God,” was very fitting as she was deeply religious and was a longtime member of the Van Nest Congregation of Jehovah’s Witnesses in New York. She was loved immensely and will be greatly missed by all who knew her.

Calling hours will be Saturday, March 30, 2013, at the Jenkins & Newman Funeral Home in Colebrook from 12:00-2:00 p.m. A funeral service will follow at 2:00 p.m. at the funeral home.

“ My sister was an amazing and caring person who left us way too soon. Words cannot describe the void I feel inside and the pain her death brings me. I loved her so much. I would say I miss her from the bottom of my heart.....but for her.....my heart has no bottom. I love you Lisa!##imported-begin##Mitzi##imported-end##

“ We were so sorry to hear about the sudden and shocking loss of our cousin Lisa. She had such a pretty smile, great laugh, and giving spirit. Although we can not be with the rest of the family to remember her, we will be thinking of you all! We look forward to seeing Lisa in the future under better conditions.##imported-begin##Perry & Crystal Clendenin##imported-end##

“ We were very shocked to hear that my cousin Lisa had passed away. Even though we are separated by half a country, we still feel the loss and our prayers of comfort and hope are with the rest of the family.

We take comfort in the joyous fulfillment of the Lord's Prayer in which we pray that God's Kingdom come and his will be done on earth. Pain, suffering, loss of loved ones in death, surely not the desire of a god of love. When this happens we shall see the joy of 1 Cor. 15:55 which states, "Death, where is your victory? Death, where is your sting?"

Plus, we will welcome Lisa back with a big, huge, knock the wind out of you hug and tears of joy, and say "Hey, where did all our wrinkles go, and white hair, and glasses, i could go on...!"

Love to all and we miss all bunches, we are with you in spirit and sending many prayers in your behalf.##imported-begin##Stephen and Cheri Doolin##imported-end##

“ Willie and I think of Lisa as a breath of fresh air, always a pleasure to be with and to enjoy things with. Since moving to Arizona some 6 years ago, we have not seen her, but she will always be a fond memory for us. She was a deep thinker, not afraid to express herself and was totally honest. What a refreshment in today's world. We look forward to being with her again in a fair, righteous and just world under Christ's tender pasturage, where Jehovah "will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore." Rev. 21:4.##imported-begin##Barry and Wilhelmina Liebl##imported-end##

“ We miss our dear niece Lisa. Even though we haven't seen her often through the years, her death has left an empty spot in our hearts. We look forward to seeing her again when she is resurrected in the promised paradise here on earth.(John 5:28,29; Psalm 37:10,11,29)##imported-begin##Walt & Bev Gniady##imported-end##
