“ I'm so sad to hear of your moms passing and send my deepest sympathies. I have such fond memories of her, she had a large impact on my childhood and who I am today. From the time I was 6 till I moved away from home she was always there watching over us with anything we needed, keeping us out of trouble and teaching us how to respect and love each other. She was a great, giving, loving women. My thoughts and prayers are with all of you.
