

Lorna Jean Freeland

December 19, 1963 - October 30, 2020

JACKSON, MI – Lorna Jean Freeland, 56, of Jackson, Mich., and originally from Pittsburg, passed away on Friday, Oct. 30, 2020, in Jackson with her family by her side.

She was born in West Stewartstown, on Dec. 19, 1963, a daughter to Edmund and Linda (Washburn) Clogston. She attended schools in Colebrook and Pittsburg, and was a 1981 graduate of Pittsburg High School.

Lorna was well known for her north country independent nature. She loved Hallmark and scary movies, the TV show “Golden Girls,” and she was a fan of Bon Jovi. Lorna loved all animals, especially her dog, Gage.

She leaves behind her two daughters, Kristie Butler (Mitchell) of Jackson, Mich., and Kara Chalifour (Jack) of Charlotte, Tenn.; her mother, Linda Clogston of Pittsburg; her sister, Vicki Thompson (Lewie) of Holderness, NH; two brothers, Dale Shallow (Monica) of Raymond, NH, and Marc Clogston of NY; two grandchildren, Charles and Jayda Osborne of Michigan; two aunts, Virginia Brown of Pittsburg and Myrna Edwards of NY; an uncle, Roger Washburn of Pittsburg; as well as numerous nieces and nephews.

She is predeceased by her father, Edmund Clogston, and two brothers, Michael and Matthew.

There are no public calling hours. A graveside interment service will be held in the spring of 2021 in the Pittsburg Hollow Cemetery of which notice will be given.

Lorna's family wishes to send a special thank-you to the staff at the Henry Ford Allegiance Hospital for their care and compassion given to her throughout the years.

Condolences may be offered to the family on-line by going to www.jenkinsnewman.com.

Funeral arrangements are entrusted to the care of Jenkins & Newman Funeral Home, Colebrook, NH.
