“ Denise, I'm sorry to hear of your Mom's passing. I still remember the world series bet she made with me. I couldn't believe she was taking the Reds over my beloved Red Sox. At the time, having to pay up my 50 cents painful. You're in my prayers.##imported-begin##Paul Levesque##imported-end##

“ Denise,
So sorry to hear the news about your mother. However, the news has stirred up lots of good childhood memories. Like how there was always a matted down path in the grass between our two houses. I feel blessed that you and your family were such a big part of my childhood. We were lucky to have each other and that connection as friends and close neighbors. I wish I could be there to celebrate her life and see you all. Just know my thoughts are with you. My Mom and Dad send their best as well. Lots of Love to you and your family, Arlene##imported-begin##Arlene Levesque Miller##imported-end##

“ We were sorry to hear of Lucille's passing. We have many fond memories of the days when Rick and Stephen were in little league baseball and the many conversations we enjoyed in the bleachers. We also remember our conversations about camp life and our mutual love of the north country, where we now spend most of our time. Our sincere condolences.##imported-begin##Roger & Sharon Tremblay##imported-end##
