

Margaret B. Elliott

August 7, 1926 - October 6, 2005

Mrs. Margaret B. Elliott, 79, of 23 East Colebrook Road, Colebrook, NH, passed away early Thursday morning, October 6, 2005, at the Upper Connecticut Valley Hospital. Mrs. Elliott was born August 7, 1926, in Scotland, daughter of the late Francis and Janice (Leslie) Black. Mrs. Elliott was a homemaker but also worked as a waitress outside the home. In her earlier years, she worked for General Electric's military factor during World War II while also entertaining military personnel at the Boston Garden by roller skating for the U.S.O. She loved doing crossword puzzles and wrote beautiful poems in her spare time. She enjoyed spending time with her friends and will be remembered as a loving mother, grandmother and great-grandmother. Mrs. Elliott is survived by her loving husband, Matthew Elliott of Colebrook, NH; her daughter, Peggy Giguere of Colebrook, NH; two sons, William Black of Wilmington, MA, and Mark Mortimer of Winchendon, MA; three sisters, Elsie Cockerline of San Diego, CA, Janet Pockrus of Woodsville, AL, and Jean Black of South Carolina; two brothers, Francis Black of Lowell, MA, and Bruce Black of South Carolina; five grandchildren; two great-grandchildren; and numerous nieces, nephews and cousins. Mrs. Elliott is preceded in death by her parents; a son, John Mortimer; and two brothers, John Black and Jimmy Black.
