

Mary A. Currier

June 2, 1941 - April 7, 2019

BLOOMFIELD — Mary A. (Shone) Currier, 77, passed away at her daughter's home in Bloomfield after a sudden illness on April 7, 2019.

She was born on June 2, 1941, in Woburn, Mass., a daughter to the late Francis X. and Irma (Studley) Shone.

She will be desperately missed by her many friends and family. Mary devoted her life to her children and was always there for her husband and all her family members and friends whenever they needed anything. She was a devout Catholic and prolife and animal rights activist. She put everything she had into helping the unborn, as well as all animals, children, and the elderly. She was an incredible, beautiful, loving soul who saw the good in everyone. She was the kindest, sweetest, most loving person to ever walk this earth. Thousands of lives have been impacted by her passing. All of us that love her dearly long for the day when we will be reunited in heaven.

She leaves behind her heartbroken daughter, Becky Bunnell (Hassett) and son-in-law Steve of Bloomfield, her loving son, Paul Hassett and wife Ellen of Auburndale, Fla., and her sister, Frances Poehlar of Nashua.

She was predeceased by her husband Albert J. Currier, her sisters, Alfreda Shone, Helen Foley(Basil), Irma Carew(James), brother Eugene and wife

Deborah Shone, and her most beloved son, Richard Hassett, Jr.

There are no public calling hours. A Mass of Christian Burial will be held on Wednesday morning, April 10, at 10 a.m. at All Saints Catholic Church in Lancaster, NH, with The Rev. Matthew Schultz as celebrant. Interment will follow the next morning, Thursday, April 11, at 11 a.m. at the Woodbrook Cemetery in Woburn, Mass.
