

Maureen A. Malloy

December 22, 1949 - September 4, 2016

COLEBROOK – Maureen A. Malloy, 66, of Colebrook, died peacefully on Sunday evening, Sept. 4, 2016, at the Upper Connecticut Valley Hospital with her family by her side and after battling cancer for three years.

She was born in Belmont, Mass., on Dec. 22, 1949, a daughter to the late James and Marion (Dennen) Walsh. She attended Belmont public schools and later went on to earn her associate's degree at Fisher Junior College.

She worked for Bentley University as an administrative secretary in the Natural Science department until she retired in 2002. After retiring, Maureen and her husband John moved to Colebrook, where she spent her days gardening, working on her home, and traveling. Maureen's greatest joy was working in her garden and enjoying the beauty of the Great North Woods through the various seasons. She was an avid snowmobiler and loved taking pictures of her home, garden, and surrounding wildlife. When she was not enjoying the beauty that New Hampshire had to offer, Maureen was traveling the world. Her favorite spots included Las Vegas and the various islands of the Caribbean. To celebrate one of their wedding anniversaries, she and her husband took a dream vacation to Europe where Maureen was immersed in the cultures of Italy, Spain, Greece, and Turkey. It was a once in a lifetime trip that she spoke of often with enthusiasm and excitement.

Her greatest sense of pride and joy came in the love she had for her family. She is survived by her husband of 46 years, John; her son Robert and his wife Erin and their children, Margaret and Christian Pugh; her daughter Laurieanne Davis and her husband Shawn; her father-in-law Neil; her brother Skipper Walsh and his wife Paula, and their children Michael, Matthew, and Emily; several brothers and sisters-in-law who were the center of her being; as well as a niece and two nephews.

There are no public calling hours. There will be a celebration of her life held at a later date at the convenience of the family.

Expressions of sympathy in memory of Maureen may be made to the American Cancer Society, 2 Commerce Dr., Suite 110, Bedford, NH 03110.

Condolences may be offered to the family on-line by going to www.jenkinsnewman.com.

Funeral arrangements in NH are under the direction of Jenkins & Newman Funeral Home in Colebrook.

“ My condolences to all those who loved Maureen. I cannot count the number of times that she and/or John picked me up or dropped me off at car repair shops nearby Waltham on the way to or from Bentley when I was trying to keep an old 1987 Saab on the road, well beyond its expected life time. I also have favorite memories of trading our northern New Hampshire stories, mine about hiking, skiing, and snowshoeing, hers about snowmobiling, both always enjoying "our" White Mountains. R.I.P., Maureen.

“ Dear John, Laurie Ann and Robert
Would like to extend my sympathy to you in the loss of Maureen.
She put up a tough fight. I will always remember your wedding and all the family weddings we all attended. Will never forget Maureen's wonderful energy and her dancing. She always got the crowd going.
She was so much fun to be around.
I will keep you and your family in my prayers in this time of sorrow.

Thank you Susan. My mom was bigger than life and she was the most vibrant person I have ever met. There is a large hole in our family now.
