

Maxine P. Gokey

May 30, 1943 - January 9, 2017

PITTSBURG— Maxine P. Gokey, 73, of Pittsburg, died on Monday morning, Jan. 9, 2017, at the Gill Odd Fellows Home in Ludlow, Vt., after a period of declining health.

She was born in Pittsburg on May 30, 1943, a daughter to the late Oliver Smith and Patricia Mousseau. She was raised and spent her younger years in Pittsburg.

Maxine enjoyed game shows on TV, and she enjoyed crocheting. She was an avid cat lover.

She is survived by two brothers, Raymond Smith of Newbury, Vt., and Vance Smith of Walpole, NH, and two sisters, Priscilla Barnes of Pittsburg and Marion Booska of Ludlow, Vt.

She is predeceased by her husband, Stanley Gokey in 1998, and by a son, Lee Smith in 2005.

There are no public calling hours. A graveside interment service will be in the spring of 2017 at the Pittsburg Hollow Cemetery of which notice will be given.

Expressions of sympathy in memory of Ms. Gokey may be made to the Two Rivers Ride for Cancer, c/o R. Mulliken, 53 Spring St., Colebrook, NH 03576.

Condolences may be offered to the family on-line by going to www.jenkinsnewman.com.

Arrangements are under the direction of Jenkins & Newman Funeral Home, Colebrook, NH.

I am so sorry for the losses you have endured but you and the others should know that without you guys their journey would have been alot more lonely and without the love and compassion that you showed to them all and still continue to do so. SO for you and the others and you know who you all are thank you for being you you all deserve so much more recogntion than what you get. And i know that max loved you too
