

Nancy A. Shallow

July 5, 1943 - March 14, 2026

COLEBROOK – Nancy Ann Shallow (Callahan), 82, of Colebrook, passed away on Saturday morning, March 14, 2026 at the Jack Byrnes' Center for Palliative Care in Lebanon, N.H., after a long period of ill health.

Nancy was born on July 5, 1943, in Boston, Massachusetts. She was predeceased by her parents, Howard and Ann Colby; her brother, Alan Colby; and her beloved husband, Philip Shallow.

She is survived by her sister, Martha Colby, and her brother, John Colby. After marrying Philip Shallow of Colebrook, New Hampshire, in 1981, Nancy lovingly welcomed his several sons and their spouses into her life, eventually becoming a cherished grandmother and great-grandmother to many.

Before her marriage, Nancy worked as a fleet administrator for Howard Johnson's in Quincy, Massachusetts. After moving to Colebrook, she continued her career as a bookkeeper at a local business, where she was known for her reliability and dedication.

Nancy loved adventure and cherished the many times she and Philip spent riding motorcycles through the scenic roads of New Hampshire and Vermont. She had a dry sense of humor and a wonderful sense of fashion that those close to her always appreciated. Nancy loved the ocean and the mountains, and she had a special fondness for cats and dogs. Above all, she loved her grandchildren and great-grandchildren and treasured the many friendships she formed throughout her life.

Nancy will be remembered for her warmth, wit, and adventurous spirit, and she will be deeply missed by her family and friends.

There are no public calling hours. The family will have a private interment on a later date at St. Brendan's Cemetery in Colebrook.
