“ My heart goes out to Angie, the girls, great nieces and nephews. You have lost a dear sweet soul. I have so many happy childhood memories of things we did together...playing monopoly, gin rummy, all week long (she beat me at both) riding bikes, picking green beans, listening to music (Hello Mudda, Hello Fadda was her favorite), laughing and singing, taking the bus to Hartford, shopping at Filene's basement. She had the courage to live her life, despite her disabilities. I will miss her greatly.##imported-begin##Diane (McCloud) Rossman##imported-end##
