

Nettie W. Brooks

January 6, 1931 - April 30, 2018

BLOOMFIELD — Nettie W. Brooks, 87, of Bloomfield, passed away at the Upper Connecticut Valley Hospital in Colebrook on Monday, April 30, 2018, after a short period of failing health.

She was born in Pittsburg on Jan. 6, 1931, a daughter of Carroll and Caroline (Dorman) Crawford. She attended the local schools in Pittsburg.

Nettie and her husband farmed their land for many years, and she later worked as a seamstress at Manchester Manufacturing for 9 years, and then in the housekeeping department at The Balsams for more than 12 years. Nettie loved her flowers, and she was an avid reader. She enjoyed visiting with her family and friends, and she was always more concerned about others than she was about herself.

She leaves behind her two daughters, Mary Skinner and husband, Steven, of Colebrook, and Rose Marois of Manchester, NH; three sisters, Ethel Aldrich of Seminole, Fla., Linda French of Bloomfield, Vt., and Nancy Leigh of Canaan, Vt.; two grandchildren and five great-grandchildren.

She is predeceased by her husband, Glen Brooks in 1995, and a grandson, Adam Brooks, in 2004.

There are no public calling hours. A memorial graveside service will be on Tuesday, May 8, 2018, at 11 a.m. in the Stewartstown Hollow Cemetery.

Expressions of sympathy in Nettie's memory may be made to the Coös Animal Sanctuary, 1057 U.S. Route 3, North Stratford, NH 03590; or online at www.coosanimalsanctuary.org.

Condolences may be offered to the family on-line by going to www.jenkinsnewman.com.

“ I can only say that there was a great group of sister in laws in the family, wasn't there? I will not be able to be around due to something going on that no one quite understands. I am isolated and secluded from family and friends during an investigation pertaining to situations we never quite understood. I have access to a computer and internet at the public library. I am still in Plymouth, NH ... with everything stolen from me and I live homeless right now.
I love you

I keep up by just checking in to these sites... sadly. and there is someone in communication that removes my correspondence. and this is the only form I have. So Barry and the staff, please keep me posted no matter who contacts you.
thank you

“ Rose and Mary
I am so sorry for the loss of your mom. She was such a nice, special person. Fond memories of yester years. I hope it comforts you to know that she is in the arms of Uncle Glen once more and they are both blessed to be with our heavenly father and all of our family members that have gone before us. I love you both!

“ Rose, Mary and families.

So sorry to learn of your mother's passing. She was always such a nice lady and so pleasant. I never saw her when she wasn't smiling. We didn't get to see each other often, so it means so much more that we were able to a couple of months ago.

“ I am so sorry for the loss of your mom, I have very fond memories of Aunt Nettie growing up when she would visit us at the farm and how sweet of a lady she was to everyone around her. Everyone loved her. May God comfort you in your sorrow and know she now lives in Heaven...an angel for sure. Hugs.
