“ Nick's laugh will always be what i remember him for. When he would get that mischievous laugh going you had no choice but to laugh along with him. Nick had a way of enjoying life that I was envious of. Nick could take terrible situations and make you laugh hard about it.

“ Our deepest condolences on the loss of Nick. I had him in my child care program years ago; since then, he had told me (several times) he remembered coming and how much he loved it. That meant the world to me.....he will be missed.

“ From the day we moved to Colebrook, Nick was there offering to help. He became a constant, even when we moved to Caanan briefly. He was loyal to those he loved and was always respectful. Nick and his demons are at rest now, we will remember him fondly.

I spend the summer in Canaan in my house across from the park. I will miss seeing Nick walk by, often waving then calling over to say. "Hello." We would talk about his father and grandmother, Mary Phillips. He knew I liked and had known them for a long time. Nick was always respectful toward me. I offer my condolences to his family.
