

Pauline A. Daley

October 24, 1929 - October 14, 2015

WEST STEWARTSTOWN – Pauline A. Daley, 85, of West Stewartstown, succumbed to her battle with Alzheimer’s early on Wednesday morning, Oct. 14, 2015, at the Coös County Nursing Hospital in West Stewartstown, with members of her family by her side.

She was born in West Stewartstown on Oct. 24, 1929, a daughter to the late Joseph G. and Laura A. (DuBois) Solomon. She was raised and educated in Canaan and was a 1948 graduate of Canaan Memorial High School, which became the alma mater of her three sons and five grandchildren. Following high school, Polly attended cosmetology school in Boston. On June 23, 1951, Polly married Bernard J Daley in a double wedding ceremony alongside her brother and his bride, Philip Solomon and Ruth Klebe. The deep friendship of this foursome was expressed in shared anniversaries, family holidays, world travels and in joined efforts to help the handicapped in Aruba. Polly, along with her husband, brother and sister-in-law, helped establish “Friends of the Handicapped” which remained in existence for 24 year and raised over $1,000,000.

She and Bernard purchased Solomon’s Store from her father in 1959. Operating it since 1969 in its current location, they expanded the family store with the involvement of their sons, Bruce and Mike. In 2014 they celebrated 90 years and three generations of Solomon family grocers being at the heart of their community. Polly has impacted the lives of many through a steadfast focus on her faith, her family, her work and her friends. She cherished her time with family at her camp on Lake Wallace and was a faithful communicant of St. Albert's Catholic Church. Her energy and passion will be deeply missed.

She is survived by her three sons, Bernard 'Jim' Daley and Karen Callahan of Portsmouth, NH, Bruce Daley and wife Heidi of Canaan, and Michael Daley of Canaan; five grandchildren, Kyle M. Daley of Canaan, Nicholas J. Daley and wife Kristen of Essex Jct., Vt., Kaitee R. Daley of West Hartford, Conn., Connor J. Daley of Burlington, Vt., and Zachary P. Daley of Marlborough, Mass.

Calling hours will be on Friday, Oct. 23, 2015, from 5 to 8 p.m. at the Jenkins & Newman Funeral Home in Colebrook. A Mass of Christian Burial will follow the next day, on what would have been her 86th birthday, Sat., Oct. 24, at 11 a.m. at St. Albert's Catholic Church in West Stewartstown with The Rev. Craig Cheney as celebrant. A graveside committal will immediately follow at the Colebrook Village Cemetery.

Expressions of sympathy in memory of Mrs. Daley may be made to the Canaan Recreation Park, c/o Town of Canaan, P.O. Box 159, Canaan, VT 05903.

Condolences may be offered to the family by going to www.jenkinsnewman.com.

Funeral arrangements are under the direction of Jenkins & Newman Funeral Home, Colebrook, NH.

“ Pauline was a very special lady. When she and Bernard visited St. Croix, USVI in the early 80s, Mom had her look us up. We spent quite a bit of time with them and they were so much fun to be around. She will be very much missed. Our thoughts and prayers are with her family. ”

“ Mike, Bruce, & Jim, Claude & I are so very sorry for your loss. All of you are truly blessed to have her as your mom. She is now with your dad, & together they will watch over all of you. It seems like yesterday, she would be-bop into the shop to get a kissing ball or two.. always in a rush, and always so full of energy! AND... I will never forget her surprise birthday party up at the country club! she danced up a storm that night! She was a hard worker, & a hard player! Our prayers & thoughts are with all of you and your families. Terry & Claude Charest ”

“ Mike, Bruce and Jimmy I am so sorry for your loss. Your Mom was an amazing lady to say the least. She worked hard and also knew how to play hard!! I have always looked at your Mom and Dad as my second parents growing up. They both always made me feel like family. I know it has been tough the last few years. She is with Bernie now and they are smiling down on all of us. Polly led an amazing life and was a success at everything she did including being a great Mom that raised 3 amazing men that she was so proud of! She was one of a kind and I don't know if we will ever see another one like her! You are all in my thoughts and prayers. God Bless you.

“ I remember my mom telling me that on the day of my baptism Aunt Polly wore a navy blue suit and I was wrapped in a white angora blanket. Needless to say, she spent most of the day picking white fuzz from her suit.

I was so honored to be your parents' Godchild. Your mom was a class act and was always looked like she was a beautifully wrapped gift for all of us all to enjoy. She will be sorely missed. May God's blessings be even brighter during this time of grief and sadness for your families and friends.

“ I was saddened to hear of Pauline's passing. Growing up in W. Stewartstown, I don't think there were many times that I walked into Solomon's store where I didn't see Pauline. She was such a wonderful lady. Although I have been away from that area for years, I often think of my home town and Solomon's is always on my mind. A gift is wrapped in a human and that Pauline was. From across the miles, my heartfelt condolences to her sons and families and her extended family from Solomon's store.

“ We were given a gift when we first met Pauline and Bernard and the boys in 1975. The friendship and relationship continued both up north "in God's country" and down south in " the home away from home" of Aruba.

Pauli was a special, caring and happy person. She made other people's days better. Like her brother Philip, she was a hard worker while also enjoying the moment. With Bernard present she would frequently be seen laughing and displaying a sense of happiness and energy. That is how we will remember Pauline.

We cannot forget the unique relationship that we saw between Pauli and Ruth Solomon. They appeared to enjoy their time together in a comfortable, joyous and loving way.

Our prayer is that that foursome, joined together in a double wedding ceremony, is now in a place where their love and laughter shine and add to the beauty of their surroundings.

Our sincere condolences to all of the family on your loss. May you remember the warm and joyful memories of a special woman.

With Love,

Peter and Mary Ann Wright
