“ I worked with Peter for several years and am saddened by the news. He was a joy to be around, a class act, and a sharp wit. I have many fond memories... He was always very proud of his daughters. My condolences go out to the entire family.

“ I was blessed to have met this sweet man. He had one of the biggest hearts I've seen in a person. Just seeing his giant smile always brightened up my very worst of days. My heart is so very heavy after learning of the passing of this wonderful human being. I will definitely miss this man! Thank you for lighting up my life when I needed it most! Until we meet again... Fly high Mr. Peter Burrows & rest easy! ♡

“ So sorry to hear about this. Pete was a great guy and I loved seeing his comments on Facebook. He stayed actively interested in the lives of his friends in the Colebrook area and was always supportive of the arts and community life. He will surely be missed. Charlie Jordan and his friends at the Colebrook Chronicle.
