

Raymond Pierre Fauteux

March 1, 1949 - October 17, 2019

ST. JOHNSBURY – Raymond Pierre Fauteux, 70, of St. Johnsbury, and formerly of Gorham, NH, and West Stewartstown passed away on Thursday, Oct. 17, 2019, at the Northeastern Regional Hospital in St. Johnsbury, Vt.

He was born in West Stewartstown on March 1, 1949, the fifth child to the late Armand and Carmelle (Favreau) Fauteux.

Ray attended St. Albert School and Canaan Memorial High School. He later moved to Connecticut and worked for Pratt & Whitney Aircraft. He joined the Navy and was assigned to the USS Bolster where his tour of duty took him to Asia during the Vietnam era. After his military service, he returned to New Hampshire, making Gorham, NH, his home, where he worked in the auto body-painting industry. Later, he volunteered to drive veterans to appointments in White River Junction, Vt.

Family was very important to Raymond. He was proud of being a Vietnam veteran. He was a very generous man, always giving his best. He was also a dog lover to the end. Ray will be remembered for his many pranks and the laughter he brought to everyone around him.

He leaves behind three sisters, Sally Biron of W. Stewartstown, NH, Jeanne

Daley of Lemington, Vt., and Pauline Gould (William) of Madison, Conn.; and three brothers, Norman Fauteux (Lisette) of Epsom, NH, Daniel Fauteux (Colette) of St. Apollinaire, Que., and Roger Fauteux of Milan, NH. In addition, he leaves many nephews and nieces, and his former wife and long-time friend Patricia Fauteux of Gorham, NH.

Sincerest thanks to Linda Lamont, who, with her sunny and up-building personality was a big help to him in his final years at the St. Johnsbury Health & Rehabilitation. The family also wishes to thank all the nurses, LNAs, and aides who took good care of him.

Calling hours will be on Friday, Nov. 1, 2019, from 9 to 10:30 a.m. at the Jenkins & Newman Funeral Home in Colebrook, NH. A memorial Mass will follow at 11 a.m. at St. Albert's Church in West Stewartstown, and interment with military honors will follow at St. Albert's Cemetery.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made in his memory to the Conway Area Humane Society, 223 East Main St., Conway, NH 03818; or to the Vietnam Veterans of America, PO Box 549, Bethlehem, NH 03574.

Condolences may be offered to the family on-line by going to www.jenkinsnewman.com.

Funeral arrangements are entrusted to the care of Jenkins & Newman Funeral Home, Colebrook, NH.

“ Such fond memories of Uncle Ray chasing all of us kids at Aunt Sally's house when there to celebrate New Years Eve. I used to love being caught! Uncle Ray was always ready to have fun and was great at showing how much he cared for us. We will miss you but will never forget you!!

Love you so much!!

“ Condolences to the family. Raymond and I share a March 1949 birthday, did our elementary school at St. Alberts together and he was quite a handsome boy. Every year on March 1st I would think of him, being born just a few days after him. Hadn't seen him in many years. Love and prayers to all of you.
