

Raymond A. Lewis

September 3, 1933 - November 28, 2006

Mr. Raymond A. Lewis, 73, of Monadnock Village, Colebrook, New Hampshire, passed away at his home on Tuesday morning, November 28, 2006. Mr. Lewis was born September 3, 1933, in Amity, Maine, son of the late Almen and Elizabeth (Beck) Lewis. Mr. Lewis served honorably in the United States Army during the Korean War from June 7, 1951, to August 24, 1954. He worked numerous jobs, including driving truck for C. Bain, working for Meineke Muffler in Lowell, MA, owning his own logging company in 1982, and even working for the Massachusetts Transit Authority during the "Big Dig" construction in Boston. He was a member of the DAV Granite State Chapter #2 and will be missed by his many friends and family members. Mr. Lewis is survived by his daughter, Bette Lewis and husband, Stephen Sordiff, of Lowell, MA; a step-daughter, Rose Storia of Lowell, MA; two sisters, Jenny Goodine and Juanita McKissick, both of Middleboro, MA; two grandchildren, Brandon Lewis and Shilo Autumn Lewis, both of Lowell, MA; and his good friends, Robert J. White and Phyllis J. Bender of Stewartstown, NH. Mr. Lewis is preceded in death by his parents; his former wife, Mary Lewis; his companion of several years, Hazel LaMarche; a brother, Harold Lewis; two sisters, Dorothy Kitchen and Pauline Lewis; and two grandchildren, Jammie Lewis and Shannon LaRose. At Mr. Lewis' request, there will be no calling hours. A graveside service with Military Honors will be conducted on Thursday, November 30, 2006, at 1:00 p.m. at the New Hampshire State Veterans Cemetery in Boscawen, NH, with The Reverend David Keller officiating. Expressions of sympathy in Mr. Lewis' memory may be made to the Make-A-Wish Foundation of America, 3550 North Central Avenue, Suite 300, Phoenix, AZ 85012-2127.
