“ I met Renald "Frenchy" Guay over 10 years ago and we became fast friends. He loved to go dancing, go out to eat, and meet up with friends. He would always pick up the phone whenever I'd call. He was a true friend. You will be missed, my friend. My sympathies to his family and his companion Marcelle

“ To Danny and the Guay and Thibodeau families... our thoughts are with you and your families as you grieve. Although it's been years since I have seen Renald, I have good memories of him as one of the "big kids" at Stewartstown Elementary. A very strong and kind man is the way I'll always remember him. God bless.
