

Richard P. Archambeault

May 3, 1951 - August 11, 2017

COLEBROOK – Richard ‘Rick’ P. Archambeault, 66, of Colebrook, passed away at the Upper Connecticut Valley Hospital on Friday evening, Aug. 11, 2017.

He was born in Nashua, NH, on May 3, 1951.

In the mid-1980s, Rick and his wife moved to Colebrook, where they had thought about only a camp; but the two of them built their home for the next 25 years together. Rick was employed for many years at LaPerle’s IGA where he was a familiar face to many. He enjoyed snowmobiling and riding ATVs, and being outdoors.

He leaves behind his mother, Lorraine Hopper of Arkansas; two brothers, William Archambeault of Manchester, NH, and David Archambeault of Maryland; and his cousin, Norman Nantel of Hudson, NH. Rick is predeceased by his wife, Jean (Luciano) Archambeault in 2016.

There are no public calling hours. All services will be private.

Condolences may be offered to the family on-line by going to www.jenkinsnewman.com.

Funeral arrangements are under the direction of Jenkins & Newman Funeral Home in Colebrook.

“ Rick was one of those people who would always go the extra mile to help someone in need and never ask for anything in return; he'd just say just help someone else when you can. Rick always had a warm and friendly smile. RIP Rick Jean is waiting.

“ For years I enjoyed talking with Rick at IGA. We could always talk about ATVing or snowmobiling. He was such a happy go lucky man. I will miss his jolly laugh and smile. RIP Rick! You will be dearly missed.
