

Robert C. Mitchell

August 30, 1937 - January 2, 2010

PITTSBURG, NH -- Mr. Robert "R.C." Carlton Mitchell, 72, of Pittsburg, NH, and formerly of Danville, NH, passed away suddenly late Saturday evening, January 2, 2010, at the Upper Connecticut Valley Hospital in Colebrook, NH.

Mr. Mitchell was born in Haverhill, Mass., on August 30, 1937, a son of the late Fred C. Mitchell and Ruth (Collins) Mitchell. He was a life-long resident of Danville.

Known to his friends as "R.C.," Robert spent his working years as a manager at the Louie Wood Heel Corp. in Haverhill. He also served proudly on the Danville, NH, Police Dept.

R.C. enjoyed his camp in Ossipee, NH, and he had a passion for hunting. He was a lifetime member of the NRA, and he loved watching westerns on TV.

He is survived by two sons, Robert D. Mitchell of Clarksville, NH, and Ronald S. Mitchell and wife, Elizabeth, of Hampstead, NH; two sisters, Judith Callouitte of Effingham, NH, and Patricia Murphy McCarthy of Ossipee, NH; seven grandchildren; three great-grandchildren; a very special friend, Barbara Siemen of Hampstead, NH; as well as numerous nieces, nephews and cousins.

Mr. Mitchell is preceded in death by his parents and two infant sons, Randy and Richard Mitchell.

At his specific request, there are no calling hours. A memorial and graveside service will be held in the spring at the final resting place of his two pre-deceased sons in the Danville Cemetery in Danville, NH.

Expressions of sympathy in memory of Mr. Mitchell may be made to the American Lung Association, 1301 Pennsylvania Avenue NW, Suite 800, Washington, DC 20004.

Condolences may be offered to the family on-line by going to www.jenkinsnewman.com.
