

Robert E. Leigh

April 15, 1918 - June 29, 2005

Mr. Robert E. Leigh, 87, of East Colebrook Road, Colebrook, NH, passed away Wednesday, June 29, 2005, at his home surrounded by his loving family. Mr. Leigh was born April 15, 1918, in Canaan, VT, son of the late Thomas H. and Annie M. (Howe) Leigh. Mr. Leigh worked as a woodsman and owned his own dairy farm for 40+ years. He also worked at the Coos County Farm in West Stewartstown, NH, and several area Christmas tree farms. He was an outdoorsman and loved nature. He enjoyed seeing others having a good time and especially enjoyed spending time at home with the company of neighbors. His regular evening coffee visit at 7:00 p.m. became an important part of his daily routine. He was a simple man who was a devoted husband to his loving wife, Laura A. (Frizzell) Leigh who passed away August 8, 2002, and he will be remembered as loving brother, father, grandfather, great-grandfather and friend to all. Mr. Leigh is survived a son, Frederick H. Leigh and wife, Patricia, of Florence, MA; three daughters, Roberta E. Ramsay and husband, James, of Concord, NH, JoAnne E. Brown of Concord, NH, and Donna M. Beal and husband, Pepper, of Machias, ME; a sister, Myrtle Rowell of Compton, P.Q., Canada; and several grandchildren, great-grandchildren, nieces, nephews and cousins. Mr. Leigh is preceded in death by his parents, his loving wife, Laura A. Leigh, a son, Rolland E. Leigh, and a sister, Blanche Danforth.