January 9, 1916 - December 14, 2014

COLUMBIA – Mrs. Rose E. Dion, 98, of Columbia, passed away early on Sunday, Dec. 14, 2014, at her home after a brief period of declining health.

She was a communicant at St. Brendan's Church and a life-long member of the Catholic Women's Club.

As the Town of Columbia's eldest citizen, Rose was honored to be the holder of the Boston Post Cane for the past several years.

Rose leaves behind her two children, Peter Dion and wife Helen of Columbia, and Suzanne Gray of Colebrook; two granddaughters, Stephanie Lemay and husband Ryan, and Sara Gray of Colebrook; and three grandchildren, Genevievre, Gaege, and Gabriealla Lemay.

She is preceded in death by her beloved husband of 67 years, Albert "Pete" Dion in 2006; a brother, Joseph Markovich, and a sister, Mary Lovejoy.

“ My condolences to Peter and Helen, Sue, Stephanie and Sara on the loss of their mother and grandmother. I was always amazed how alert and active Rose was. She was going to exercise class when the rest of us would have long since quit. This was the first year I didn't see her at the Catholic Christmas Bazaar. She was an amazing woman. You are all in my thoughts and prayers. Patty Hart

“ I can only remember what a great Aunt that she was. I will never forget all the good times we had at their Camp at Maidstone Lake. We used to spend all of our Vacations there. She & my Mom (Mary) would laugh and carry on all the time while the guys would go fishing or work on the Camp. Those times will never be forgotten. Our condolences go out to her entire family, but what a nice long life she had.

“ I loved going to Colebrook every time I came to Vermont to visit. Aunt Rose always had a wonderful meal ready when I got there and would say "What are we going to do today?" She was always ready to go anywhere we wanted to go and loved eating out. Colebrook was always my favorite place to go when I was a child. Especially all the good times at Maidstone Lake. She was such a special person and I will miss seeing her on my visits to Vermont. My thoughts are with the family and I'm sorry I won't be there for her service.

“ We did not know Rose well. We only met her a couple of times through gatherings with Peter and Helen. She must have been a wonderful woman to have raised a son as decent and upstanding as Peter. Our prayers are with Peter, Helen and the rest of Rose's family. It's never easy to lose a loved one, no matter how long we were blessed with them. Wishing you all peace....

“ I remember Aunt Rose most when we used to play solitaire at the camp on Maidstone Lake. She always remembered to send a Christmas card to me and my family every single year. I also remember her to be a fantastic cook. She will be missed for sure. Now she can be reunited with her sister (my grandmother) and her beloved husband, Pete. RIP sweet Aunt Rose.

“ I loved going to visit my great Aunt Rose. I have such fond memories of her and my Uncle Pete. I remember going to their camp on Maidstone Lake each summer. Rose always had a great sense of humor and I enjoyed doing the crossword puzzle with her in the paper when I visited her. She led a great long life and was such a great cook, I always looked forward to what she had up her sleeve for dinner each day. I will miss her dearly and will remember her saying "oh my", with her NH accent. Love you, Kathy (Lovejoy) Brien
