

Rose M. Damm

June 14, 1912 - May 13, 2011

ERROL, NH – Miss Rose Mary Dämm, 98, of Errol, NH, and formerly of Brooklyn, NY, passed away on Friday evening, May 13, 2011, at her residence, with her sister and caretakers by her side.

She was born in Brooklyn, NY, on June 14, 1912, the thirteenth child of Rudolph and Florence (McCarthy) Dämm.

Rose was home-schooled by her mother until the age of nine, and graduated from the Visitation Academy and The Chase School, both in Brooklyn. During World War II, she was employed at the U.S. Army Transportation Headquarters on Governor's Island, a position which became permanent until illness prevented her from continuing with her career.

Rose later moved to the family's summer home in Errol, NH, a place that she truly loved. In 2008, she was presented with the Boston Post Cane by the Town of Errol, honoring her for being the town's eldest citizen. The Dämm family is grateful for the kindness which the community of Errol has always shown to them.

She leaves behind her sister, Frances Dämm, several nieces, nephews and family friends. She was predeceased by her parents and siblings, Charles, Frank, Radcliffe, Charity, Anna, Rudolph, Arthur, Robert, William, Florence and Marie.

There will be no calling hours. A private interment will occur at the family lot in St. Charles Cemetery in Farmingdale, NY.

Expressions of sympathy in memory of Miss Dämm may be made for the benefit of Errol's St. Pius Catholic Church, c/o the North American Marytrs' Parish, 55 Pleasant Street, Colebrook, NH 03576.

Condolences may be offered to the family on-line by going to www.jenkinsnewman.com.

Funeral arrangements are under the direction of Jenkins & Newman Funeral Home,
Colebrook, NH.
