

Rowena Fletcher

April 29, 1933 - October 3, 2020

CANAAN – Rowena (Rena) Fletcher, 87, of Canaan and Micco, Fla., passed away peacefully at her home on Saturday evening, Oct 3, 2020. She was born in West Charleston, Vt., on April 29, 1933.

She is survived by her children and their spouses: Robert Pond Jr., Vincent Pond (Cheryl), Melody Fletcher (Eric), Lori-Ann LaPorte (Rit), and Lawrence Fletcher II (Noelle); a host of grand- and great-grandchildren; her siblings, Ira, Judy and Mary, as well as many nieces and nephews and several in-laws. Rena also leaves behind her devoted "friend" and companion of 30 years, Philip Therrien of Canaan, as well as his children.

She is predeceased by her parents, Opal and Wilmer Batchelder, her husband Sherman G. Fletcher, and her brother "Junior."

Rena enjoyed a quiet simple life. She loved spending time visiting with her family and friends. She adored her grandchildren (and her grand-pets!), and she loved to have beautiful flowers in her yard, both in Vermont and Florida.

There are no public calling hours. A graveside interment will be at 2 p.m. on Sat., Oct. 31, in the Colebrook Village Cemetery.

Condolences may be offered to the family on-line by going to www.jenkinsnew man.com.

Funeral arrangements are entrusted to the care of Jenkins & Newman Funeral Home, Colebrook, NH.

“ As her eldest son I never really knew my mother well... My past was oil to her vinegar, just didn't mix well... I owe my kindness and love for others to her 2nd husband... I owe my hard headedness and procrastinating to my mother... May she forever be In that place called Eternity, For alive inside me, Memories of her smile I'll always see... jjs
