

Ryan T. Frizzell

March 27, 1987 - December 27, 2020

LEMINGTON – Ryan Thomas Frizzell, “Boru,” 33, of Center Ossipee, NH, passed away on Sunday, Dec. 27, 2020, at his parents’ home in Lemington, VT. Ryan was born March 27, 1987, in Littleton, NH, a son to Thomas and Jane (Bissonnette) Frizzell. He lived for a short time in Colebrook, and later moved to Lemington, Vt. He graduated from Colebrook Academy in 2005.

Ryan was a talented baseball player, possessing excellent hand-eye coordination and could really swat a baseball! He was also a member of the 2002 Colebrook Academy basketball state champion team. At an early age, his father taught him to play guitar and he became an excellent lead guitarist with a fine singing voice. He played rock, country, and heavy metal all with equal passion. He played in several bands, the most recent being “Northern Lights” with his father Tom, Dwayne Klebe, and Matt Hopkins. He also had a love for firearms and spending time at camp with family and friends. Meacham Swamp, Stub Hill, and Old Orchard Beach were some of his favorite places.

His work career was varied and began at Charles White’s dairy farm in Columbia. He then sold cars for a couple of years at Berlin City in Berlin. Ryan was an excellent equipment operator and worked operating skidders and delimiters for several local loggers. His most recent job was as a scaler and crane operator for Kennebec Lumber Co. in Tamworth, NH. In 2012, he met Marecar Malinao and they had a daughter, Ariana Elissabeth, in 2015, and were married in 2017. Ryan was a big influence in raising his stepchildren, Mathew and Caeley and he loved them dearly.

Ryan is survived by his wife Marecar and children Mathew, Caeley, and Ariana of Ctr. Ossipee; his parents, Tom and Jane Frizzell of Lemington, Vt.; brother Justin and wife Jennifer, (Kelly and Graydon) of Colebrook; brother Ian Frizzell of Lemington, Vt.; sister Sarah Burrill and husband Brian (Mason and Amelia) of Colebrook; grandmother Elizabeth Frizzell of Colebrook; and numerous aunts, uncles, and cousins.

Ryan was predeceased by his grandfather Donald Frizzell, grandparents Louis and Louise Bissonnette, great-grandmother Marguerite "Rusty" Wiswell, and an aunt Diane Bissonnette.

He will be remembered as a humble man with a huge heart, who genuinely loved his family, friends, and music. He was proud of his Scottish, Irish, and French heritage, and was known to wear a kilt while playing music at the Swamp.

Due to the ongoing pandemic, services at this time are private. A graveside interment service will be held in the spring of 2021 of which notice will be given.

Expressions of sympathy in memory of Ryan may be made to help his young family, in care of Jenkins & Newman Funeral Home, 103 Main St., Colebrook, NH 03576.

Condolences may be offered to the family on-line by going to www.jenkinsnewman.com.

Funeral arrangements are entrusted to the care of Jenkins & Newman Funeral Home in Colebrook.

“ We are so very sorry for your loss. Our hearts ache. Thinking of Ryan automatically brings a smile to our faces. Cannot help but think of him as the three year old we first met. His wavy hair crowning his sweet beautiful face with an infectious smile. He was always a good hugger even at that age. He loved fully and purely. Him and Garrett were really close in those days. He was always good at giving Garrett a bear hug. Garrett was not a hugger but Ryan could always get him to take a hug and hug back a little. That was no easy feat. Meeting up with Ryan through the years no matter where we met it was like no time had passed. It was never hard to speak and be close to him. He has always reminded us so much of his father in his demeanor yet in his caring for others you could see his Mom in him . His eyes always had a twinkle. We loved hearing him on his guitar and singing. No matter when you would meet him he always made you feel welcome and like he had all the time in the world for you. He was a wonderful soul and he will be in our hearts forever. Till we can all gather in heaven and hear you sing again know you have touched our lives and are loved by us and many others. I know you are jamming out on the other side and we will hear you in our dreams. Love you!

“ I've known Ryan since he was a little boy coming to band practice with his dad at our house in Canaan. Back then I thought that kid was going to follow in dad's footsteps. He was a sweet and talented young man. The years went on and my husband played music with Ryan on many occasions. Ryan not only became a talented musician, but a dedicated husband, father and family man. Our hearts go out to his family, and his wife and children. You will be missed Ryan.
