

Sandra L. Danforth

January 10, 1956 - January 27, 2023

COLEBROOK – Sandra L. Danforth, 67, of Colebrook, passed away on her mother’s birthday, Friday, Jan. 27, 2023, at the Jack Byrne Center for Palliative & Hospice Care in Lebanon, N.H., with her daughter at her side and after many years of ill health.

She was born in Haverhill, Mass., on Jan. 10, 1956, a daughter of the late Frank E. and Juanita C. (Milot) Danforth, Jr. Sandra was raised and attended schools in Nashua.

Sandra was a loving and caring mother, grandmother, sister, and aunt, and family meant everything to her. Since ill health had kept her from working much over the years, she spent her time volunteering and being the best mother she could be. She was a strong fighter, never giving up. She enjoyed doing her crossword puzzles, arts and crafts, and she loved to cook for her family, as well.

She leaves behind her only daughter, Sharon Ricker and husband Chris of Stewartstown; 3 grandchildren, Kassandra Ricker of Kentucky, Savannah and Isabella Ricker of Stewartstown; a great-grandson, Brian D. Boyd III; a sister, Donna David of Nashua; as well as nieces, nephews and cousins.

She is predeceased by a brother, Wayne Danforth.

There are no public calling hours or services scheduled at this time. A Celebration of Life will be held at a later time at the convenience of the family.

Expressions of sympathy in memory of Sandra may be made to the J. Byrne Center for Palliative & Hospice Care, 154 Hitchcock Loop, Lebanon, NH 03756.

Condolences may be offered to the family on-line by going to www.jenkinsnewman.com.

Funeral arrangements are entrusted to the care of Jenkins & Newman Funeral Home in Colebrook.

“ Sandra was bighearted, family oriented, kind and generous. She had talents with art, math, cooking and puzzles such as 3-D Mah-Jong. Sandy was full of surprises. She was also a strong and passionate person. I was lucky to get to know Sandy and to meet her North Country family, who are good people. My heart goes out to them.
