She was predeceased by her loving husband of 36 years, Robert "Red" Fissette in 2013, a son, Jimmy Sambito, and a brother, Robert Biron.

Calling hours will be on Sunday, July 8, 2018, from 6 to 8 p.m. at the Jenkins & Newman Funeral Home in Colebrook. “ To Randy, Debbie, and Gidget, I am so sorry to hear about your mother. Here it is 9/29/24 and I heard it yesterday! Where? Do you remember a family on Mill Rd. in Littleton, Ma. by the last name of Zdanawicz? Every year I get on my Harley and cruise through Littleton and check out the old neighborhood, and visit them. The only other adult alive is Mrs. Greycloud. She,s in N. Dakota with Vicky. The saw mill shut down a few yrs. ago and is now a paving co. Randy was my best friend, your Dad or Walter cut my hair, we went swimming at Herpey,s dairy, stopped at the Penny Candy Store and I never could make up my mind who was the most beautiful? Your mom, Debbie,(who I had a secret crush on) or Gidget? I actually bumped into Ellen at the Colebrook House back in the mid 80,s. I was, and still am, an avid snowmobiler. I asked for everyone and she told me about "Little Jimmy"!(RIP). Your mother was like a 2nd mother to me but she was great to all the kids and I will always remember her as 1 of the nicest persons I have ever known in this crazy mixed up world we now live in! I can,t remember what I had for lunch the other day, but I will never forget growing up in the 60,s and being friends with you people! It was an honor!! I even remember the old model T your dad had downstairs in the garage! Guaranteed, Shirlee is now not suffering, and is with Jimmy and God. Sincerely, Jeff Dusti Shirley, Ma. age 68 retired

“ I recently found out Shirlee passed away. I was sad to find this out by the Internet. I was not close to my father or Shirlee. But Robert and Shirlee are now together and I pray that they are in heaven together. I wanted to be a good son and step son to them both. But I was not. What I have found to be ever so true is you don't know what you got until it is gone.... Life is to short... And I am forever sorry for not being a good son or step son to them both.

“ Debby, how can anyone who knew your Mom have only ONE moment to share?

She was a generous Mom as you and I spent time together long before I actually worked for her. When, by the way, she exacted her mentoring ability, and taught me well.

Getting to know your family when you moved to Colebrook held a traumatic time when Jimmy died. I admired all your strengths as you allowed your loving little brother to pass to Heaven with such grace.

Life doesn't always offer room for fair. Heartache seems to comes around again as the Lord decides when it is time for our loved ones to join Him.

What amazes me, is how each loss changes us, changes our grounding, changes our sense of mortality. What also amazes me is how those we know and love surround us in a cocoon of comfort during those times, when we need it most.

On that note, know that you can draw on all those who love you, love your family, and of course loved your Mom. The wonder of your Mom will always be with all of you.

Shirley left a good memory for each of the people whose life she touched. Thank you for sharing her with us.

With sympathy and empathy to you and your family,

“ Debbie, Gidget and Randy, Your mother was the strongest and bravest woman I ever knew. Through all these many years she mustered on like a real trooper. Her love of life was evident in everything she did. She loved her family and her friends dearly. May she rest in peace and may you know that she is organizing some kind of game or get together up there in heaven. God bless you, Patty
