She loved to make things grow and she enjoyed gardening, both flowers and vegetables. She loved to crochet and her family will always remember her as a wonderful cook, always wanting to feed everyone who might show up for a visit. Sue enjoyed the ocean and going to the beach, and she loved to go out to the movies with family and friends. She also loved to play Scrabble with her friends, often winning the game even if she fell asleep between turns. She was the glue that kept her family together.

“ Momma Sue. My mom's best friend since I was 4years old, since 1968. And has been in my life ever since! She taught me to crochet, to be kind to others even when they didn't deserve it, to be gracious, humble, so many things I've learned from her. Momma Sue lived with me for some time and even helped me with my children (whom called her Nana all their lives) when I had surgery on my knee in the 90's.... we went out many weekends dancing, having a few drinks, and even karaoke. She loved going to the beach, the smell of the salt water, and seafood. Fried Scallops is what she'd get there. She loved with all her heart. She often talked about her brother's and sisters, and how her only dream in life would be to see them again. And she got that... That dream came true for her in life. Mike, Junior and Amia may you find comfort for knowing she's no longer in pain, and that she's in Heaven with the Lord. A perfect Angel. I miss our phone calls so very much in the mornings, I miss our love you's, most of all I just miss Momma Sue. Fly high Momma--
