

'Tank' Lionel R. Sylvestre Jr

February 2, 1947 - February 5, 2022

COLEBROOK – 'Tank' Lionel R. Sylvestre, Jr., 75, of Colebrook, passed away at his home with his wife by his side after a period of declining health on Saturday, Feb. 5, 2022.

He was born in Littleton, N.H., on Feb. 2, 1947, a son to the late Lionel R. and Maebelle (Olney) Sylvestre, Sr. Tank grew up in the Littleton and was a 1965 graduate of Littleton High School.

For his entire working life, Tank was an auto and truck mechanic and truck driver. Also a 'Jack-of-all-trades,' he worked for the Town of Littleton Highway Dept. for 21 years. After his retirement from there, he also worked part-time as a truck driver for R. Brooks Trucking in Stewartstown.

Tank was an avid hunter and fisherman, and he was a motorcycle enthusiast who loved to ride his Harley-Davidson. In his early years, he also enjoyed windsailing on Lake Champlain in Vermont and off the coast of Cape Hatteras in North Carolina. He taught Hunter Safety Education courses for a period of time in Littleton prior to his move to the north country. A true people-person, he had a wonderful sense of humor and made friends with whoever he talked to. Tank was loved by many and will be missed by them all.

He is survived by his wife of 25 years, Sandra (Pihl) Sylvestre of Colebrook.

Memorial calling hours will be held on Thursday, Feb. 10, 2022, from 5 to 7 p.m. at the Jenkins & Newman Funeral Home in Colebrook.

Expressions of sympathy in memory of Tank may be made to an animal organization or charity of one's choice.

Condolences may be offered to the family on-line by going to www.jenkinsnewman.com.

Arrangements are entrusted to the care of Jenkins & Newman Funeral Home.

“ It only seems like a short time ago that we were on Medow Street and going to Saint Rose school and Littleton High. Time slips by so quickly and we have no real time to connect. life is so very bussie and we lose contact. All we have are memories rest easy you have always been a great person. “ I was saddened to hear of Tank's passing. He was truly one of the "good ones". I last saw Tank late last summer when he made the trip down to Littleton for breakfast at the topic of the town. It was a weekly breakfast with some of "the boys" from Tank's high school days.

He admitted the trip wasn't as easy as it once was, but no one dwelled on that and he was in good mood and more than willing and able to tell a good story. If I remember his seat faced the entrance of the restaurant and I swear he knew and greeted most folks that came in, including his friend, David Daine from his Littleton Chevrolet days. Just glad I saw him that day. My condolences Sandra. Pete McCabe

“ Such a loss for us all. I only met Tank this past summer and he instantly received a special place in my heart. I knew little of him and reading his obituary I see we had more in common than I realized previously and I regret will never get a chance to exchange more stories. In his final months he frequented our bicycle shop and became dear not only to myself but also to my children. He would come by to fetch Nicholas when he needed a hand, and I would send Nicholas away with him despite him mostly being a stranger because his genuine personality made him easy to trust. I regret that the dreams of tank and Nicholas fishing together won't be realized, but I have a feeling tank will be with us every time we cast the line in moving forward.

“ Tank was a neighbor and a new fishing buddy of Dick when he lived in Stewartstown. Tank and Thad always took Dick fishing and they were just as crazy about as he was. Neither one could get enough of it.

“ My thoughts are with you Sandy in this difficult time, So many memories of you and Tank, from your wedding to others times when I stopped by and visit when you lived in Littleton. I remember going for a walk with the Boys and Art and Tank had a deer on the front of a four wheeler, I thought oh gross the boys were like cool. May you find peace knowing he is always watching over you. hugs from a old friend Sharon Thomas

“ Oh Sandy I am soo heart broken to hear this. I am grateful to have known him and will forever remember his many stories of all his youthful escapades. My girls still remember him driving them in the tow truck for one of the parades when they were small and always referred to him as the "Big Teddy Bear" Tank had a huge heart and that is what I will remember him for. Hugs to you 💕💕
