

Theresa "Terri" Ann Heath

February 13, 1941 - July 21, 2009

ADAMS, TENNESSEE -- Mrs. Theresa "Terri" Ann (Gravel) Heath, 68, of Adams, Tennessee, formerly of Bloomfield, Vermont, passed away Tuesday, July 21, 2009, at Grace Healthcare in Whites Creek, Tennessee.

Terri was born February 13, 1941, a daughter of the late Henry Harold and Ruth Amelia (Kittridge) Gravel.

Terri was a homemaker who was very family oriented. She worked along side her late husband, Clifford "Cliff" R. Heath, who served as a pastor for the Living Word Assembly of God Church in Gilmington Iron Works, NH, and later moved their family to Bloomfield, VT, where she supported her husband's ministry at the Faith Assembly of God Church in Columbia, NH, and the Lancaster Assembly of God Church in Lancaster, NH. She was also an active member with her husband in the Colebrook Jaycees, and enjoyed fishing, crafts, sewing, gardening, and bowling with her friends in the Colebrook bowling league.

Terri is survived by her son, Mark A. Heath and wife, Elaine, of Pulaski, VA; two grandchildren, Josh Heath and wife, Heidi, of Reidsville, NC, and Francesca Fisk and husband, Nathan, of Woodbury, VT; and two great-grandchildren, Garrett Heath and Madison Fisk.

She is preceded in death by her parents; her loving husband, Clifford R. Heath, on March 25, 2004; and her brother, Henry "Skip" Gravel.

Services were conducted Thursday, July 23, 2009, in Tennessee. The family will hold a memorial service on Saturday, October 10, 2009, at 1:00 p.m. at the Faith Chapel Assembly of God Church in Columbia, NH. A private interment service will be held at the Bloomfield Cemetery.

“ I just now found out what happened to my best childhood friend. We use to do the. Craziest things, like sneaking out of the house at night and skateboarding down third and park, or getting caught in the rain, or playing house in our shed in the back. I always wanted to find you. Be at peace Terri. 💕 Rosemary DeslsLes
