

Therese C. Caggiula

September 30, 1921 - June 12, 2016

COLEBROOK – Thérèse C. Caggiula, 94, of Colebrook, passed away peacefully at her home on Sunday evening, June 12, 2016, surrounded by family.

She was born in Whitefield, NH, on September 30, 1921, a daughter to the late Joseph and Adine (Boissoneault) Crepeau. She attended Whitefield schools, and attended Carney Hospital Nursing School in Boston for 6 months before marrying Vincent L. Caggiula in 1941.

Thérèse spent most of her life raising her eleven children, but she always remained active in her local Catholic Church, serving as president, secretary, and treasurer of the St. Brendan's Women's group at different times, and singing in the choir for many years. She always loved skiing, and after her family grew up, she spent several years as a ski instructor at the Balsams Wilderness Ski Area . She was a favorite instructor for many skiers, especially the local children in the school program. She loved crafting and sewing and was a member of the Shady Ladies quilting club, enjoyed gardening, and was a member of the local gardening club, and loved having coffee with "the girls." She was a wonderful mother and homemaker and her greatest passion was caring for her family. Therese always loved children - her own, her grandchildren, her great-grandchildren, and she enjoyed the sounds and laughter of children everywhere.

She is survived by her eleven children: Vincent, Jr. (Chip) of Douglasville, GA; Peter, of Plymouth, NH; Suzanne Shook and husband, Jaron, of Newark, OH; Gina Vaughn and husband, Jerry, of Roswell, NM; William (Bill) of St. Pete Beach, FL; Paula and partner, Stephen Butters, of Norway, ME; Daniel, of Nashua, NH; Marty, of Maui, HI; Chris and wife, Stephanie, of Merrimack, NH; Lisa and husband Tom Riddler of Vermontville, NY; and Jon and wife Pamela of Concord, NH. Thérèse is also survived by 19 grandchildren and 18 great-grandchildren.

Thérèse was predeceased by her husband of 57 years, Vin Caggiula, in 1998; six brothers: Maurice, Paul, Lionel, Eugene, George, Daniel; three sisters: Louise, Madeleine, and Claire; an infant daughter, MaryAnn, and a grandson, Jeremy Vaughn.

Calling hours will be on Thursday, June 16, 2016, from 6 to 8 p.m. at the Jenkins & Newman Funeral Home in Colebrook. A Mass of Christian Burial will be held at St. Brendan's Catholic Church at 1 p.m. on Friday, June 17, with The Rev. Craig Cheney as celebrant. An interment service will follow at St. Brendan's Catholic Cemetery.

Expressions of sympathy in memory of Mrs. Caggiula may be made to the Northwoods Home Health & Hospice, 278 Main St., Lancaster, NH 03584.

Condolences may be offered to the family on-line by going to www.jenkinsnewman.com.

Funeral arrangements are under the direction of Jenkins & Newman Funeral Home in Colebrook.

“ Dear Caggiula family,
I was so sorry to hear of Therese passing. What a great lady! In the last couple years of my mom - Madeline Boucher's life, Therese and Madeline had some interesting adventures together. In the fall of 1994 they went leaf peeping together and got off the road somehow and got the car stuck in the woods. They then proceeded to hitch hike to town to find a tow truck. Both Mom and Therese told the driver of the tow truck he should bring the larger of the 2 trucks but he didn't listen. Once he saw the car he had to go back for reinforcements! Once safely back at the garage they were told what the charge would be and Therese said "excuse us a minute" our 2 mom's stepped outside to discuss how much they should tip him in addition to the tow charge. Mom had her camcorder with her and somewhere there is a video of them trying to get unstuck with much laughter. They both made the world a better place.

“ Condolences to all of you Caggiulas! Your Mom was a great influence to me at the ski area, in the Catholic Women's Club, and our Church choir. She taught me to sing harmony. She always made practice fun. She's now singing in heaven (got her voice back) with Gail Mitchell and Susan MacDonald. She was also first ski instructor to all 4 of my kids, and never forgot their names or antics. She could tell me stories till the end!

We will all miss her smile, spunk and gentle ways. Love to all. Ann Hebert

“ Love and condolences to all of you

Some of the best moments of my teen age years were spent with Therese in Whitefield. There will always be a special place in my heart for those fond memories. Over the years each time we met was always a wonderful occasion. She was the big sister I didn't have and I will always remember.

“ Chip, Pete, Suzanne and the whole Caggiula family;

Our condolences to you all. She raised a great family--a lasting tribute to her. Chip & Pete (great school memories in Whitefield); Suzanne (who pounded me unfairly--I wasn't allowed to harm a girl--but now a great memory and story). Your Mom was a super lady and has gone to a very well-earned eternal reward. She will remain in our hearts and minds through her smile on those she left behind.

“ Condolences to the Caggiula family. I remember Aunt Therese from a very early age, when she sang Ave Maria at a wedding. I was about 3 years old at the time, but I remember thinking to myself, "I want to be like her". She had such a sweet voice. I will remember her always. Rest well, Auntie. I love you.

“ Condolences and heart-felt love, Caggiula family. Therese didn't live very far from us when I was growing up, just on Colby from us on Dumont, and I remember her tending the yard all the time. She was also an awesome ski instructor, so patient and caring. Heaven has gained a wonderful angel who can teach everyone how to ski!!!

“ Dear Lisa and the entire Caggiula family. So very sorry to hear about the loss of Therese. She was such a wonderful woman as you all well know. I was so thankful that she was a ski instructor at the time my children learned to ski at the Balsams. She was just so wonderful. Please accept our deepest condolences and heartfelt prayers at this time. We just lost our own Mother on May 22. May God bring you His comfort and peace. Love, Lori (Parkhurst) and Jim MacDonald, formerly of Columbia and Lemington. Presently of Lisbon, NH.
