“ I knew Viirginia a little years. She seemed like a quiet lady and would always speak. I knew Bruce when he had his garage in Beecher Falls. I knew the girls by sight. They were younger and went to school with a couple of my brothers.

My condolences to the families.

“ *This is a sad time. Not only losing a lovely kind lady, but losing the last remaining "aunt" and person of our parents' generation! I will have fond memories of her forever, but have to rejoice at her "home-going" to be with Jesus and to now be with her loved ones already there! Til we meet again, Virginia!
