Tribute Wall

“ Dear Kevin and David,
Your Dad came into our lives about 10 years ago, when we opened up our lumberyard in Pittsburg. He was great at telling you the Walt Way of doing something but he was also the first one to give you a hand. Your Dad visited us daily. If we didn't see him for a couple of days we would track him down just to make sure he was alright. He didn't always show it but he had a kind heart. He gave me encouragement more than once. I learned through him that a little kindness means a lot.

I just want you to know that your Dad was proud of and loved both of you. He loved his Grandchildren and was so proud when he received their school pictures. He had me laminate them so they wouldn't get damaged in his wallet.

We will miss your Dad's daily visits but we will be tell Walt stories for years.

With Deepest Sympathy,

Dick and Joni Hicks##imported-begin##Joni and Richard Hicks##imported-end##
