“ To Brenda Bob and Family. Mark and I are so stunned and saddened to hear that Wes has passed on. We were "truely" blessed to have known such a great human being. Wess was one of a kind. As our former neighbor and builder of our cabin, we got to know him well. His humor, smile and laugh was so contagious. Wes had a real genuine concern for others... On our last visit several weeks back, he asked Mark,,," Gee, you look thin and pale, are you all right". Now we know Wes had to have been very ill then, and there he was, worrying about Mark... Our cabin has away's been special, because he build it, but now only, so much more.... We surely will miss him... Much love to all of you during this difficult time,,,,,,Diann and Mark###imported-begin##Mark and Diann Gindlesperger###imported-end##

“ Dear Brenda, Bob and family,

I am so very sorry to hear about Wes. I liked him very much and it was always a pleasure working with him buying and selling property. His humor and dry wit made for interesting transactions and made him someone that I looked forward to seeing regularly.

He and I often talked about the moose head that I sold for him during the process of selling one of his homes quite a few years ago. That was just one of the many interesting stories that came about while working with Wes. He and I would still chuckle about that even recently.

I will miss him as I am sure you all will. Please know that my thoughts and prayers are with you at this difficult time. I recently lost my dad and I know that no matter how old we get it is very hard to lose our parent...especially one as special as Wes. I hope that in time your many happy memories will bring you much needed comfort and peace.

With sincere sympathy,

Coralie##imported-begin##Coralie Stepanian##imported-end##
