The Tillotson family has much to be thankful for, because of what Bill was for the Balsams and the surrounding area. His familiar thin nasal tone telling kids how to go "up and down" with ski turns never had to shout and never seemed to end. He knew how to deal with children, including myself and my brother, and trips up the chairlift with him were always marked by him smoking and telling the world how it was in a soft, resigned to it, matter of fact sort of way. Fierce silent determination. Smooth. More to him than meets the eye, he was ready to talk your ear off if he was ready. Must have taken him half a day to unthaw after some of those cold windy days he was on the mountain. His sense of humor was keen and ready if needed. Must have been a real hoot for my brother to have worked around him on the hotel service staff. When it comes to heartbreak in losing one's job(s), he had to have hurt when the Balsams shut down, he was such a big part of the operation, year round, and part of what made it so special, and he knew how special it was. You were a real class act, Bill, we were all lucky to have you. I am pleased you will be able to see your parents again, they are very special people too and I/we miss them. Thanks, Bill, forever. Jamey Tillotson

“ William A Weyrauch, was a kind and gentle person , whom I met playing black, and became fast friends. We would talk for hours on end , and he would tell me all about his life , his loves and his family . A gentlier soul , i have never met, a loner by choice, he still had time to listen , to other people problems, . always, hiding his, but I knew his kind heart and soul had had a few hard knocks . William , rest easy sweet man. You are at peace now. I will remember you with such fond memories,, God speed my friend Helen , Babb

We talked about the different places we liked to go in Cape Elizabeth when we we're growing up! Bill loved my little Chihuahua Sweet Pea and would often bring her treats. I am going to miss you Bill!!! May you rest in peace my dear friend!!*

“ Our thoughts and prayers are with Bill's family and friends. He was one of the good guys. We worked with him for many years at the Balsams. We lost touch with him for a number of years after leaving the Hotel, but caught up with each other within the last couple of years. It was really nice to renew our friendship. He will certainly be missed.
