

Zane L. Fuller

February 12, 1920 - December 7, 2004

Mr. Zane L. Fuller, 84, of West Stewartstown, New Hampshire, passed away Tuesday morning, December 7, 2004, at the Coos County Nursing Hospital in West Stewartstown. Mr. Fuller was born February 12, 1920, in Canaan, VT, son of the late Frank A. and Lula M. (Wright) Fuller. In 1935, he moved with his family to Whitefield, NH, and graduated from Whitefield High School in 1939. He worked in the Whitefield and Lancaster area after school, working as the projectionist at the Rialto Theater until being drafted in the United States Army Air Corps in December, 1942. He was honorably discharged in December, 1945. He moved to Lancaster and made his home there for five years while returning to the Rialto Theater. He later moved to North Haven, CT, and worked for Pratt & Whitney for more than 30 years, retiring in 1982. After retirement, he returned to Canaan, VT, and lived in Canaan until he bought his home in West Stewartstown in 1996. He was a member of the Northland American Legion, Post #47 of Canaan, VT, and a past member of the Lake Wallace Association of Lake Wallace, VT. Mr. Fuller is survived by three sisters: Juanita Shearer of Bradford, VT, Beatrice Hankins of Coca, FL, and his twin sister, Jane Stevens of Canaan, VT. Mr. Fuller is also survived by numerous nieces and nephews.